QUICK HITS

-Sarah Hope matched the school single-game record in 3-pointers made with seven against Rhode Island with seven. The junior is currently ranked 10th all-time at BU in career three's with 128.
-Meghan Green had a break-out game against Marist, scoring 22 points. She leads the team with 10.9 points and 5.8 rebounds per game.
-BU enters its third season in the Patriot League and second under the command of head coach Katy Steding.
-BU returns nine players from the 2014-15 season and added five during the off-season.
-The 2015-16 captains are Clodagh Scannell, Courtney Latham, Sarah Hope and Corrine Williams.
-Six players who started 12 or more games return for the 2015-16 season.
-BU enters its 41st season as a varsity program.

A TERRIER WIN WOULD...

-End a two-game series skid for the Terriers.
-Give BU its first win of the season.
-Be the second win against Holy Cross as conference opponents.

LAST TIME OUT

-BU came back from the holiday break with a 60-45 loss in the final non-conference matchup of the season against Vermont.
-Troi Melton and Courtney Latham co-led the team with 11 points apiece.
-Corrine Williams had a career-high six steals, the first BU player to have five or more take-aways in a game since Courtney Latham had five exactly one year ago against UMass.
-Kara Sheftic had success drawing Catamount fouls, getting 12 chances from the foul line throughout the game, the most since 2012 when Mo Moran also had 12 shots from the charity stripe at Albany (Jan. 12).

THE SERIES

- Holy Cross leads, 12-3 and won the last two meetings.
- BU has only claimed one win over the Crusaders as conference opponents.
- The pair first met in 1976, the program's first season.

THE TERRIERS

- The Terriers start the season on an 11-game skid.
- Sarah Hope has been outstanding from long-range as of late, matching her career-high with six three's against UMass Lowell and then beating her personal best and matching the school record with seven against Rhode Island.
- After missing a game due to injury for the first time in her career, Meghan Green returned against Marist and led the team with 22 points, one shy of her career high. She leads the team with 10.9 points and 5.8 rebounds per game.
- Troi Melton has been a consistent threat for the Terriers, averaging 9.5 points per game, bolstered by six double-digit showings so far this season. She has also been key to the BU defense, leading the team with 15 steals this year.
- BU returns nine players from the 2014-15 season and adds five newcomers to this year's squad.

THE CRUSADERS

- Holy Cross finished its non-conference schedule with a 3-8 record, defeating Bryant, Vermont and Manhattan.
- The Crusaders are averaging 62.2 points per game so far this year and are shooting over 40 percent from the field. Holy Cross has found success from long range, averaging 6.2 3-pointers per game.
- Raquel Scott leads the team with 16.4 points and 8.9 rebounds per game. I. Thomas-Waheed and Lisa Mifsud both average 11.6 points per game. Thomas-Waheed leads the team in steals with 2.4 per game and Mifsud is the assist leader with 3.6 per game.

THE TURNPIKE TROPHY

- Throughout 2015-2016, Holy Cross and Boston University will be competing for the inaugural Turnpike Trophy.
- This athletic series between the in-state Patriot League rivals awards points for all head-to-head victories in both the regular season and postseason, with the Turnpike Trophy going to the school that accumulates the most points at the end of the year.
- Going into Wednesday's game, the Terriers hold a 5-0 lead, winning in men's and women's soccer, field hockey and men's and women's cross country. There are two points up for grabs as the men's basketball teams also meet on Dec. 30 at Holy Cross.

BU IN CONFERENCE OPENERS

- The Terriers are 17-14 all-time in conference openers including a 4-7 record at home.
- BU has not yet won a Patriot League opener, losing to Holy Cross in each of the first two years in the conference.
- BU is best on the road in conference openers, going 9-6 on opponent courts and 4-1 at neutral sites.

KEEPING IT LOCAL

- The Terriers will not leave New England during the non-conference schedule and face schools only from the Northeast until January.
- BU played all three Boston-area schools in the first four games of the season, playing Northeastern and Boston College at home and at Harvard on Tuesday.
- In total, the Terriers play six schools from Massachusetts in the first half of their season.
- Every non-conference road game is a day-trip, as the Terriers play at Harvard, Dartmouth, UMass Lowell, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

MASTER THEIVES

- Three Terriers have double-digit steals on the season, led by Troi Melton, who averages 1.4 per game.
- Clodagh Scannell has 12 so far this season while Courtney Latham has 10 takeaways.
- Corrine Williams had a career day against Vermont, doubling her previous personal best with six steals against the Catamounts, helping the Terriers cause a season-high 22 turnovers. She is the first BU player to have 5 or more steals in a game since Latham on Dec. 28, 2014 against UMass.

GLIMMER OF HOPE

- Sarah Hope has been hot from long range as of late, averaging 3.8 makes from beyond the arc in the last four games.
- She matched the school record and set a new personal best this week against Rhode Island when she netted seven 3-pointers to help her score a career-high 23 points.
- The Medway, Mass. native also scored six 3-pointers against UMass Lowell, tying her previous high.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

- Troi Melton and Meghan Green each recorded a double-double at Harvard, the first time a BU player has reached the benchmark this season.
- Green led the Terriers with 18 pts and 10 reb while Melton tallied 14 pts and 10 reb.
- The game marked the first double-double of Melton's career while Green collected the fifth of her career.

COMING TO AMERICA

- Three players on the 2015-16 squad are international student-athletes including two newcomers.
- Senior Clodagh Scannell is the longest-tenured international Terrier, hailing from Cork, Ireland.
- She is joined this year by transfer student Sophie Beaudry, a Quebec, Canada native and freshman Milla Ekstrom from Turku, Finland.

STEDING STATS

- Katy Steding enters her 2nd season at BU.
- Prior to heading to Boston, Steding spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Cal, one season as the associate head coach at San Francisco, and one season at Columbia.
- Though her first gig at the Division I level, Steding spent seven seasons as the head coach at Warner Pacific (NAIA).
- Prior to her coaching career, Steding played in the WNBA, ABA and for Team USA, with whom she won a gold medal in the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games.
- The Oregon native played college ball at Stanford and led the Cardinal to its first-ever National Championship in 1990. She was named the MVP in the win.

PATRIOT LEAGUE NETWORK

- The Patriot League Network, in collaboration with Campus Insiders, enters its third season this year.
- The Patriot League will live-stream hundreds of its men's and women's sporting events, add studio programming and grow distribution on multiple platforms and devices.
- All BU women's basketball home games and road conference games that are not part of a television package will be available to watch for free on PLN.

TERRIER SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

- Boston University's Terrier Sports Radio Network (TSRN) enters its second season this year.
- All of BU women's basketball road contests will have an audio-only stream available, with James Mattone on the call.
- The service is provided by Stretch Internet and can be accessed by visiting GoTerriers.com/TSRN

FRESHMAN | CENTER | 6'5 | TURKU, FINLAND | TURKU CLASSIC

AS A FRESHMAN IN 2015-16: Made her collegiate debut against Boston College and grabbed one rebound...Scored the first points of her career at New Hampshire, finishing with two points, two rebounds, a block and a steal... Played against Rhode Island.

STEDING ON EKSTROM: "Our staff was thrilled when Milla told us she wanted to be a Terrier. I can't say enough about what she can bring to our table--Milla runs the floor really well, can play inside or out, and is quick enough to defend out of the paint. She can stretch defenses with her '3' and put it on the floor, on top of using her length around the rim. Her abilities and skills will be an asset to our young group of posts."
