CREDENTIALS & SCOUTING PASSES

All requests for working media credentials should be made to Charles Bare at least one week in advance, preferably in writing. All requests received one week in advance will be mailed, while all others will be left at the will call window, which is located at the entrance to the Hart Center. Every effort will be made to accommodate all members of the media, but as space is limited, we may not be able to honor all requests.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Holy Cross has installed analog phone lines which can be used by visiting radio. Those wishing to install their own lines may contact Verizon at (508) 792-4000. Any radio station or reporting service seeking in-game or post-game reports must make arrangements through the athletic media relations office.

TELEPHONES

There is one community telephone on press row for use by the media. To order a private phone, contact Verizon at (508) 792-4000.

INTERNET ACCESS

There is high speed wireless internet access available for members of the media to use in the Hart Center arena.

PARKING

Parking at the Hart Center is on a first-come, first-served basis. The parking lots in front of the Hart Center are ordinarily able to handle all of your parking needs. Members of the media are encouraged to arrive at least one hour before tipoff in order to ensure the availability of parking.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Pregame press notes and flip cards are available in the media room approximately one hour before tipoff. A pregame meal will also be available approximately one hour before tipoff. E-mail service is available after the game with advanced notice to the athletic media relations staff. Halftime statistics, final statistics and play-by-play are provided. Complete books are available approximately 15 minutes after the game.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The Holy Cross basketball locker room is closed to the media. Members of the media should submit player requests to Charles Bare by the five-minute mark of the second half. For games at the Hart Center, a postgame press conference will be held in the Bud Ryan Room following a 10-minute cooling off period. Requests for interviews with the opposing team should be made with that school's sports information director.

COACH & PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Personal interviews with head coach Bill Carmody, his staff and players can be arranged through Charles Bare. Players are available in person and for phone interviews on most days, subject to the individual student-athlete's academic responsibilities. Arrangements for all interviews should be made at least 24 hours in advance. Home phone numbers will not be given out.

HOLY CROSS ON THE INTERNET

Information on Holy Cross basketball and all 26 other varsity sports is available through the Holy Cross Athletics home page at "www.GoHoly-Cross.com". All notes and statistics will be available through the site. In addition, Crusader radio broadcasts can be heard on the internet, with information on broadcast locations available on the Holy Cross Athletics home page.

2015-2016 SEASON PREVIEW

Heading into the 2015-2016 campaign, the Holy Cross men's basketball team looks to build a squad which can be a contender in the Patriot League. The Crusaders are beginning a new chapter in program history under the direction of head coach Bill Carmody, a former Big Ten Coach of the Year. Holy Cross returns three starters from last season, along with five other letterwinners. With the addition of five talented freshmen, the Crusaders have the ingredients necessary to be a key player in the conference race.

"We are still trying to figure out what our biggest strengths are going to be," said Carmody. "On offense, we are going to keep the ball and the guys moving around, and hopefully that will get us a lot of good looks. I want everyone on the floor to dribble, pass and shoot. So whoever has the ball is the point guard, and everyone gets the ball almost every single time down the court. On defense, we will probably use a combination of pressing, half court man and zone. We will have to see what works the best for this team.

"The guys on our team really like each other, and they have all shown the willingness to work hard and get better. If we can knock down open shots and rebound well as a team, we will have a chance to be successful this year."

Here is a breakdown of how Holy Cross should look in 2015-2016.

BACKCOURT

The Holy Cross backcourt will be led by a pair of veterans in senior guard Cullen Hamilton and junior guard Anthony Thompson. Hamilton averaged 6.6 points and 2.4 rebounds per game last season, while hitting 33.8 percent (26 of 77) of this three-point field goal attempts. He played particularly well down the stretch last year, averaging 11.3 points over the final six games. Over the course of his Holy Cross career, Hamilton has now scored in double figures 20 times

After suffering through an injury plagued season in 2014-2015, Thompson will look to break back into the starting lineup. Last year, he averaged 5.9 points, 2.2 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 1.3 steals per game. Thompson will look to regain the form which saw him earn Patriot League All-Rookie team honors as a freshman, when he averaged 9.4 points, 2.2 rebounds and a team-best 2.5 assists per contest.

"Anthony Thompson and Cullen Hamilton have been around for a while and have seen significant playing time, so we will need them to be leaders for us," said Carmody. "They have both been working hard to improve their games, and should provide a good combination for us in the backcourt."

Also returning in the backcourt are senior guard Eric Green and junior guard Robert Champion. One of the top defensive players on the team, Green averaged 6.5 points, 3.2 rebounds, 1.4 steals and 0.6 blocked shots per game last season, while hitting 43.2 percent of his field goal attempts (86 of 199). Champion averaged 4.8 points and 1.8 rebounds per contest in 2014-2015, and made 46.8 percent of his field goals (51 of 109) and 37.9 percent of his three-pointers (22 of 58).

Newcomers who will look to break into the lineup in the backcourt include freshmen guards Pat Benzan, Marcellis Perkins and Matt Zignorski. Benzan spent one postgraduate year at Worcester Academy, and previously averaged 26.7 points, 9.0 rebounds and 7.0 assists per game during his senior season at Roxbury Latin School. Perkins played a postgraduate season at Fishburne Military Academy, and averaged 16.0

points, 9.0 rebounds, 5.0 assists and 3.0 steals per contest as a senior at Deep Creek High School. Zignorski was a two-time team captain at Pope John XXIII Regional High School, and led his team to an overall record of 29-4 and the New Jersey Non-Public A state championship as a senior.

Junior walk-ons Thomas Kennedy and Patrick Rielly will provide added depth in the backcourt.

FRONTCOURT

Junior forward Malachi Alexander developed into one of the team's top frontcourt players last season, and will look to be even more of a factor this year. Alexander averaged 8.4 points, a team-high 5.0 rebounds and 1.0 assists per game in 2014-2015. He was also one of Holy Cross' top shooters, making 43.4 percent of his field goal attempts (79 of 182), a team-best 44.7 percent of his three-pointers (21 of 47) and 73.5 percent of his foul shots (72 of 98) on the year.

"Malachi Alexander is a very strong player with the ability to step out and hit jump shots," said Carmody. "He is also a good passer, so we are looking for him to move more and become a true inside-out threat."

Junior center Matt Husek and senior forward Christopher Morgan will both compete for key playing time down low. Husek averaged 3.0 points, 1.1 rebounds and 0.7 blocked shots per contest in 22 games played last season. Morgan averaged 2.7 points and 1.6 rebounds in 27 games a year ago, while hitting a team-best 66.0 percent (31 of 47) of his field goal attempts. Senior forward Isaiah Baker will also look to see more action, after grabbing two rebounds in six games last season.

"Matt Husek is a skilled player who should see significant playing time," said Carmody. "Christopher Morgan is a mature, experienced player, and Isaiah Baker has been working hard to improve. Between the three of them, we should have the center position covered."

Freshman forwards Karl Charles and Jehyve Floyd will also look to break into the frontcourt rotation this year. Charles averaged 15.6 points, 8.2 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.6 steals per game last season, as a senior at Rutgers Prep School. Floyd earned first team All-Conference honors as a senior at Sayreville War Memorial High School, after averaging 17.5 points, 10.7 rebounds and 2.4 blocks per contest.

SCHEDULE

Once again this season, the Crusaders will face one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the Patriot League. Five of the schools on the non-league schedule advanced to postseason play last year, including three NCAA Tournament teams.

The Crusaders' non-conference slate is highlighted by home games against 2015 NCAA Tournament participants Harvard and Albany. Holy Cross will also travel to perennial national power Kansas, and will pay a visit to Rhode Island, one of the top teams in the Atlantic 10. In addition, the non-league schedule includes home games against Maine, New Hampshire and Sacred Heart, and road dates at Brown, Hartford, Marist and Quinnipiac.

The Patriot League looks to be solid this season, with Holy Cross playing home-and-home series against each of the nine other teams in the league. The conference schedule will be highlighted by contests against 2015 Patriot League Tournament champion Lafayette and 2015 Patriot League regular season champion Bucknell.

BILL CARMODY HEAD COACH

Bill Carmody is in his first season as the head men's basketball coach at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. The 17th head coach in the history of the program, Carmody has 32 years of Division I coaching experience, including 17 seasons as a head coach.

From 2000-2013, Carmody served as the head coach at Northwestern University. In the four years from 2008-2012, he guided the Wildcats to four consecutive winning seasons, with his 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 teams both recording a school record 20 victories. Carmody, who previously spent four seasons as the head coach at Princeton University from 1996-2000, had led his teams to eight postseason tournament appearances - two trips to the NCAA Tournament and six trips to the National Invitation Tournament. In addition, he was selected as the Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year in 2003-2004.

Over the years, Carmody has been nationally recognized as one of the top coaches in the college game. He has been labeled the best offensive coach in college basketball by Sports Illustrated. Sports Illustrated's college basketball writers have also voted him one of the 15 best coaches in the college game.

During the 2014-2015 season, Carmody served as a special assistant / advisor to the head coach at Fairfield University. He previously spent 13 seasons at Northwestern, guiding the Wildcats to one of the most successful stretches in the history of the program. He won 192 games during his time at Northwestern, good for the second-most victories in school history behind only Arthur Lonborg (236 wins / 1928-1949). Carmody's teams also made a school-record four straight postseason appearances from 2009-2012, with four consecutive trips to the National Invitation Tournament. In addition, the Wildcats won at least six Big Ten games in eight of his 13 years at the helm, after accomplishing that feat only six times in the previous 31 seasons.

Carmody's Northwestern teams were widely recognized for their willingness to share the basketball, while not turning it over. In each of his last seven seasons with the Wildcats, the team ranked in the top 15 in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio. Carmody's teams were also extremely proficient from beyond the three-point line during his time at Northwestern, with his squads occupying the top five spots in the school's record books for three-point field goals made in a season. In addition, his 2009-2010 team set a Big Ten record with 170 three-pointers made in conference games.

In 2010-2011, the Wildcats made the deepest postseason run in school history, advancing to the quarterfinal round of the National Invitation Tournament before falling in overtime at Washington State. Along the way, Carmody picked up career win No. 250 in Northwestern's Big Ten tournament victory over Minnesota.

BASKETBALL STAFF

The Wildcats' 10-1 start in 2009-2010 allowed them to earn their first national ranking in 41 years, coming in at No. 25 in the Associated Press poll on Dec. 28, 2009. Later that season, a victory over No. 6 Purdue at home marked the highest-ranked team Northwestern had defeated in 31 years. The Wildcats would finish the year by averaging a Big Ten-best 68.7 points per game in conference play, marking the first time they led the league in scoring since 1966-1967.

In 2008-2009, Carmody guided Northwestern to one of the top turn-arounds in the country, leading them from eight wins the previous season to a then school regular-season record-tying 17 victories. The Wildcats also raised their conference win total from one to eight, marking the largest Big Ten increase since Minnesota went from three wins in 2003-2004 to 10 the following season. Along the way, Northwestern defeated ranked opponents in consecutive games for the first time in program history. The Wildcats beat No. 18 Minnesota at home before going on the road to top No. 7 Michigan State. Coupled with a win at No. 19 Purdue, Northwestern defeated two ranked teams on the road in the same season for the first time. The three wins over ranked teams were the school's most since the 1993-1994 campaign.

During the 2003-2004 season, Carmody earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors, after leading the Wildcats to an 8-8 mark in Big Ten play. The Wildcats' fifth place finish in the conference standings that year was their best since 1968-1969, while their 8-8 record was their best in league play since 1967-1968.

Prior to his time at Northwestern, Carmody was the head coach at Princeton from 1996-2000. During his four-year tenure, he guided the Tigers to an overall record of 92-25 (.786) and an Ivy League mark of 50-6 (.893), while leading the team to the postseason each year. His squad went 24-4 record in his first season (1996-1997), the third best first year mark for a Division I head coach in 30 years. Carmody followed that up with an even better sophomore campaign in 1997-1998, when Princeton finished with a 27-2 record, a Top 10 national ranking and advanced to the second round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament.

Carmody's Princeton team claimed the 1998 Rainbow Classic title in Hawaii with wins over Florida State, Texas and Charlotte on consecutive nights, and in the 1999 NIT they defeated Georgetown and North Carolina State before falling in the quarterfinal round. Princeton had winning streaks of 20 games and 19 games under Carmody (the two longest streaks in school history), and his teams set 31 school records during his tenure. He was also named the United States Basketball Writers' Association District II Coach of the Year and the New Jersey Coach of the Year each of his first two years. In addition, Carmody is one of only five men to coach a team to a perfect Ivy League record (in both 1996-1997 and 1997-1998), and is the only coach to do so in his first year.

From 1982-1996, Carmody served as an assistant coach at Princeton under Pete Carril. The Tigers made seven trips to the NCAA Tournament during his first 14 years on the staff, which included a victory over defending national champion UCLA in 1996. Carmody was previously an assistant coach at Providence for one year (1980-1981) and at Union College for four years (1976-1980). He began his career as the head coach at Fulton-Montgomery Community College in Johnstown, N.Y., leading the team to a 17-10 record and conference title in his only season there (1975-1976).

A native of Spring Lake, N.J., Carmody graduated from Union in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in history. A basketball standout, he led Union to a 59-11 record in three seasons as a starter. During his senior year, he captained the Dutchmen and was named first team All-ECAC as well as the school's Most Outstanding Athlete.

Carmody and his wife, Barbara, have two sons, Michael and Eddie.

KEVIN DRISCOLL ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin Driscoll is in his third season as an assistant coach at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. He is heavily involved in all areas of the Crusader program, including on-court coaching, player development, recruiting, film exchange and scouting.

During the 2013-2014 season, Driscoll helped the Crusaders to an overall record of 20-14, good for their first 20-win season since 2006-2007. Holy Cross also placed third in the Patriot League with a 12-6 mark in conference games, and received an invitation to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. Holy Cross' 68-65 victory at Brown in the first round of the 2014 CIT was its first in a national postseason tournament since 2004-2005.

Driscoll came to Holy Cross from the Hoop Group, where he served as the director of the Elite / Eastern Invitational and the Skills / Pocono Invitational for four years. He directed all aspects of the largest basketball camps in the country, which included over 3,500 players in the summer and 1,800 players for the spring and fall showcases.

Prior to his time with the Hoop Group, Driscoll was an assistant coach at Albright College in Reading, Pa., for three seasons from 2006-2009. He helped lead the Lions to an overall mark of 44-32 during his three years on the staff, including records of 17-9 and second place finishes in the Middle Atlantic Conference in both 2007-2008 and 2008-2009. During his time at Albright, Driscoll also served as an admissions counselor. He began his career as the head boys' basketball coach at Hamburg (Pa.) Area High School from 2004-2006.

Driscoll is a 2004 graduate of Misericordia University in Dallas, Pa., with a bachelor's degree in sport management. A four-year letterwinner on the Cougars' basketball team, he helped the squad to two ECAC Tournament appearances, and still ranks third all-time at Misericordia with a career field goal percentage of 55.6 percent.

JOE KENNEDY ASSISTANT COACH

Joe Kennedy is in his first season as an assistant men's basketball coach at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. He joins the Crusaders after serving as a video coordinator for the Sacramento Kings during the 2014-2015 season.

In 2013-2014, Kennedy was the director of player personnel at Oregon State University. He previously spent three seasons as the director of men's basketball operations at Northwestern University from 2010-2013.

While at Northwestern, Kennedy assisted in a variety of responsibilities with the program, including handling all travel arrangements and serving as the team's academic liaison.

Kennedy is a 2007 graduate of Northwestern with a bachelor's degree in education and social policy. He was a four-year letterman on the Wildcats' basketball team, was named a team captain his senior season and received Academic All-Big Ten recognition three times. His father, Pat Kennedy, is currently the head coach at Pace University and was formerly the head coach at Florida State, DePaul, Towson, Iona and Montana.

BASKETBALL STAFF

Prior to returning to Northwestern as director of basketball operations, Kennedy was a special assistant for the Office of Public Engagement at the White House from January 2009 to October 2010, where he served as a liaison to key national advocates and organizations that helped promote and implement the administration's legislative priorities. It primarily focused on outreach to youth, students, amateur and professional sports organizations, including individual athletes and their representatives, sports agencies, teams and the commissioner's offices.

He also built a coalition of sports organizations, including the NBA, WNBA, NFL, MLB, NHL, MLS, PGA, USOC and the NCAA, to promote the First Lady's "Let's Move!" campaign against childhood obesity, and coordinated and executed championship visits and other sporting events at the White House.

From April 2007 to January 2009, Kennedy worked for the Obama for America and Obama Transition Team where he coordinated logistics and event planning for the Office of Public Liaison and Intergovernmental Relations. He was the regional director in Polk County, Iowa, where he managed the daily operations of four campaign offices and a full-time staff of 16 people.

Kennedy also worked for the Hoop Group in Neptune, N.J., in 2008 as a special assistant to the president and coordinated logistics for Spring Jam Fests in Pittsburgh, Pa., Providence, R.I., and Charlottesville, Va.

FREDDIE OWENS ASSISTANT COACH

Freddie Owens is in his first season as an assistant men's basketball coach at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. He has eight years of collegiate coaching experience, and has been a part of seven NCAA Tournament teams as either a player or a coach.

During the 2014-2015 season, Owens served as an assistant coach at Utah Valley University. He was previously an assistant coach at Oregon State during the 2013-2014 campaign, helping the Beavers to an overall record of 16-16 and a trip to the College Basketball Invitational.

Prior to his time at Oregon State, Owens served as an assistant coach at Montana for four seasons from 2009-2013. He helped the Grizzlies to four straight 20-win seasons and a total of 93 victories, with the team winning three Big Sky Conference Tournament titles and making three trips to the NCAA Tournament (2010, 2012 and 2013). Montana also played in the College Basketball Invitational in 2011.

Before becoming an assistant coach at Montana, Owens served as a graduate assistant at Iowa State University during the 2008-2009 season. He was also an assistant coach in 2007-2008 at Adams State College in Alamosa, Colo., and helped the team go 18-10, its most wins in a season since joining the Division II ranks.

As an undergraduate, Owens was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at the University of Wisconsin, with the team advancing the NCAA Tournament in each of his four seasons. During his career, he scored 796 points and helped the Badgers win two Big Ten regular season championships (2002 and 2003) and one Big Ten Tournament title (2004). Owens made a game-winning three-pointer against Tulsa at the buzzer in the NCAA Tournament as a junior in 2003 to send the Badgers to the Sweet 16.

After college, Owens played professionally in Europe for the Riga Barons in Latvia in 2005-2006 in the Euro Cup and Baltic Leagues. His first coaching stint was with Stay In The Game AAU in 2006-2007.

A native of Milwaukee, Wis., Owens graduated from Milwaukee Washington High School in 2000 after leading the basketball team to a 24-2 record and state runner-up finish as a senior, when he was ranked the third-best guard in Wisconsin.

Owens earned his bachelor's degree in life sciences and communications from Wisconsin in 2005 and his master's degree in higher education from Iowa State in 2011. He and his wife, Carmen, were married in August 2010.

MATT FAVA COORDINATOR OF OPERATIONS

Matt Fava is in his second season as the coordinator of men's basketball operations at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. Fava's primary responsibilities include serving as the team's travel and video coordinator, in addition to assisting with recruiting efforts, summer camps and day-to-day office duties.

Fava came to Holy Cross from Castleton (Vt.) State College, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for two seasons. He helped the Spartans to an overall record of 36-

22 during his two years on the staff, with marks of 19-9 in 2013-2014 and 17-13 in 2012-2013. Castleton State advanced to the championship game of the North Atlantic Conference Tournament in 2013, while making it to the semifinals of the league tournament in 2014.

Fava was previously as assistant coach at Connecticut College for three seasons from 2009-2012. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator, helping to secure commitments from players in seven different states. In addition, Fava designed and implemented the team's strength and conditioning program and directed a staff of student managers.

A 2009 graduate of Connecticut College with a bachelor's degree in English, Fava worked as a student assistant coach and head manager for the Camels' men's basketball team. As a senior, he received the Andrew H. Chait Award for service and commitment to the Connecticut College department of athletics. Fava went on to receive his master's degree in education from Castleton State in 2014.

SUPPORT STAFF

CHARLES BARE MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Charles Bare is in his 12th year as the director of athletic media relations at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. He is responsible for the publicity of all 27 Crusader varsity sports, working directly with the men's basketball and football teams. Bare oversees the production of the athletic department's publications and the content of GoHolyCross.com, the official athletic department web site.

During his time at Holy Cross, Bare has handled the publicity for two players who were finalists for the Walter Payton Award — Steve Silva (2005) and Dominic Randolph (2007, 2008 and 2009). He also worked with the men's basketball team during its trips to the 2007 NCAA Tournament and 2005 National Invitation Tournament, and promoted the careers of Patriot League Players of the Year Kevin Hamilton (2005) and Keith Simmons (2007).

Bare came to Holy Cross after spending six years at the University of Massachusetts. During the 2003-2004 school year, he served as the interim director of athletic media relations for UMass, overseeing all public relations activities, information services and publications for the athletic department. Over the previous five years, Bare was an assistant director of athletic media relations, working extensively with the football, basketball and baseball teams, while supervising the media relations activities for a number of other sports. His 2000, 2001 and 2003 football media guides were rated the nation's second-best in Division I-AA, while the 2004 guide placed third.

Prior to his time at UMass, Bare spent two years as assistant sports information director at the University of Virginia. During his time at Virginia, Bare handled the publicity for two national players of the year in men's soccer — Mike Fisher (1996) and Ben Olsen (1997). He previously worked at UMass from 1994-1996, spending two years as an intern in the media relations office.

Bare graduated summa cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1994. He earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics with a concentration in business administration, and was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, the Football Writers Association of America and the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Bare and his wife, Talene, have one daughter (Adrianna).

WALLY TRISDALE ATHLETIC TRAINER

Wally Trisdale is now in his second year as an athletic trainer at the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. He serves as the athletic trainer for the Crusader men's basketball team, in addition to working with football and track and field.

Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Trisdale was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at the University of Connecticut from 2012-2014. He worked with the football and men's and women's swimming and diving teams, providing daily treatment, care and rehabilitation to athletes. Trisdale also served as a teaching assistant, for a course on therapeutic instruction and injury assessment.

Previously, Trisdale was an intern athletic trainer at UMass Lowell from 2010-2012, working with the men's soccer and baseball teams. He also spent time as an athletic trainer at Access Sports Medicine in Exeter, N.H., in 2010, where he provided medical coverage to small high schools in the coastal area of N.H.

Trisdale graduated magna cum laude from the University of New Hampshire in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training. He then received a master's degree in exercise science from the University of Connecticut in 2014.

SHEPARD ALLEN STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Shepard Allen is in his third season as an assistant strength & conditioning coach for the College of the Holy Cross in 2015-2016. He works directly with the Crusader men's and women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, baseball, softball, field hockey, volleyball, women's tennis, cross country and track & field squads.

Allen came to Holy Cross from Valdosta State University, where he served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach for two years. He worked with the women's basketball, golf and football teams during his time at Valdosta State, with the football team winning the 2012 NCAA Division II national championship.

Allen was previously an intern strength and conditioning coach for the University of Iowa football team in the spring of 2011, and the Holy Cross athletic department in the spring and summer of 2010. He also spent time as an intern working at North Dakota State University and the Pomfret (Conn.) School.

A certified strength and conditioning coach with the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association, Allen was a 2012 recipient of the John Stucky Award for outstanding performance on the SCCC exam. He received his bachelor's degree in applied exercise science from Springfield College in 2011, and his master's degree in leadership in higher education administration from Valdosta State University in 2013.

THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

Jennifer Heppel
Executive Director

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men's and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola (Md.) and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country. The Patriot League will celebrate its 25th Anniversary as an all-sport conference during the 2015-2016 season.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. The League also had 92 percent of its teams score above the national APR average in the most recent data, and 101 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Awards after posting academic progress rate scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

During the 2014-2015 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

- 101 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR), with 88 of those squads earning perfect scores.
- The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in Public Recognition Awards, while Bucknell, Lafayette and Colgate all placed in the top six nationally.
- 92 percent of Patriot League teams scored above the national average in APR, while more than 70 percent had at least a 990 score in the multi-year rate.
- Navy's Tom Buffone (track and field) and Loren Generi (women's lacrosse) and Lafayette's Cory Spera (baseball) earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.
- Eleven student-athletes earned Capital One Academic All-America recognition, including first-team accolades for Buffone (track and field) and Ellen Bradford (swimming and diving), American's Jen Dumiak (women's basketball) and Fordham's Brett Biestek (football).
- Thirty-four student-athletes received Capital One / CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.
- Four Patriot Leaguers were named Senior CLASS Award finalists, with Colgate's Caroline Brawner (women's soccer) and Army West Point's Sam Somers (men's lacrosse) earning first-team recognition.
- Brawner was also one of the league's nominations for the NCAA Woman of the Year award along with Boston University's Valentina Cerda Eimbecke (field hockey).
- Loyola won a pair of NCAA Tournament games to become the first Patriot League women's lacrosse team to advance to the quarterfinal round, and also finished in the top 10 of the IWLCA Coaches Poll.

- Fordham (football) and Lehigh (softball) also won NCAA Tournament contests in 2014-2015.
- Fordham running back Chase Edmonds won the Jerry Rice Award as the FCS Freshman of the Year. Edmonds was also named the ECAC Offensive Rookie of the Year, while Bucknell's Evan Byers was selected as the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year.
- Twenty-four Patriot Leaguers were named All-Americans in team sports, with first-team status for Byers and Fordham's Mason Halter in football and Navy's Joseph Greenspan in men's soccer
- Four Patriot Leaguers competed at the NCAA cross country championship, and Lehigh's Elizabeth Weiler became the league's first female All-American since 2005.
- Lehigh's Ryan Mahalsky became the first Patriot Leaguer since 2007-2008 and sixth all-time to compete at the NCAA championship for both cross country and outdoor track and field in the same season.
- Bucknell's Emma Levendoski competed in both the 100-meter and 200-meter backstroke at the NCAA women's swimming and diving championship.
- A league record nine student-athletes were selected in the Major League Lacrosse (MLL) Draft entering the 2015 season, with Army West Point's John Glesener, Loyola's Nikko Pontrello and Colgate's Ryan Walsh among the top 11 picks.
- Navy's Joseph Greenspan and Boston University's Dominique Badji were both selected in the first four rounds of the Major League Soccer (MLS) Draft.
- Five Patriot Leaguers were taken in the Major League Baseball (MLB) First-Year Player Draft, with Lehigh's Justin Pacchioli and Navy's Stephen Moore each selected in the 10th round.
- Buffone and Dumiak were named the Corvias Patriot League Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year honorees, respectively.
- There were 2,745 student-athletes on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2014-2015, including 217 with a semester GPA of at least 4.0.
- Bucknell's Ryan Frazier (men's basketball) and Andrea Siefert (women's rowing) each received the Patriot League Award of Outstanding Leadership and Character, while Lehigh's Ashley Blanks (women's soccer) was named the League's Sportsmanship Award winner.
- Navy won the Corvias Patriot League Presidents' Cup for the third time in the last four years.
- The Mids also won the men's title while Boston University repeated as women's champion.

HART CENTER RECORDS

HART CENTER FACTS

NAME: The Hart Recreation Center is named for Rev. Francis J. Hart, S.J., the guiding force behind intramurals at Holy Cross for more than 40 years.

FIRST GAME: Holy Cross defeated Loyola (Md.) 94-85 on December 1, 1975.

CAPACITY: 3,600 permanent and bleacher seats around the court.

LARGEST CROWD: Holy Cross has had numerous standing room only crowds of 4,000, the last coming on March 9, 2007, against Bucknell.

LONGEST WINNING STREAK: 23 Games. Holy Cross won its final four home games of the 2005-2006 season, all 14 home contests during the 2006-2007 campaign, and its first five home games in 2007-2008 for its longest overall streak. The longest seasonal streak was 14 games, when the Crusaders posted a perfect 14-0 home record during the 2006-2007 season.

LONGEST LOSING STREAK: Seven games. The Crusaders dropped their first seven home games of the 1996-1997 season.

CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS: The Crusaders posted 11 straight winning records at home from 1975-1976 through 1985-1986, in the first 11 years they played at the Hart Center.

BEST SEASON RECORD: Holy Cross had a perfect 14-0 mark at home during the 2006-2007 campaign.

WORST SEASON RECORD: The Crusaders were just 2-8 at the Hart Center during the 1997-1998 season.

100TH WIN: Holy Cross defeated Manhattan 114-71 on December 7, 1985, for its 100th victory in the Hart Center.

150TH WIN: Holy Cross downed Mount St. Mary's 115-82 on January 4, 1992, for its 150th victory in the Hart Center.

200TH WIN: Holy Cross defeated Lafayette 72-71 on February 15, 1997, for its 200th victory in the Hart Center.

250TH WIN: Holy Cross downed Army 78-38 on February 7, 2004, for its 250th victory in the Hart Center.

300TH WIN: The Crusaders defeated Sacred Heart 67-58 on November 14, 2008, for their 300th win at the Hart Center.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

STARTING & RESTARTING

For a program that has had as much success as Holy Cross basketball, it is commonplace to be able to speak with reverence about “the beginning.” With the Crusaders, however, it is important to ask “which beginning?” Coached by J. Fred Powers, Holy Cross played its first basketball game on Jan. 11, 1901, losing to the Milbury Intermediates 21-13. Holy Cross followed that up the next day by defeating the Century Cycle Club 30-10. But it was a loss to Harvard (20-10) on Jan. 15 of that season that marked the school’s initial outing against a collegiate opponent.

Powers led the Crusaders through the 1908-1909 season, after which the sport was discontinued until 1920-1921 — at which time it was restarted only as a response to a challenge (see box below). Holy Cross continued to play through the 1930-1931 season, with some success. Coach John Reed’s squads were a combined 60-41 from 1925-1931, when again the Crusaders played their “final” game, due primarily to financial reasons. Under Holy Cross legend Albert “Hop” Riopel, Holy Cross basketball started anew for the third time in 1934-1935, but after a disappointing 3-12 season, the sport was discontinued for the third — and final — time.

Yet when Edward “Moose” Krause’s squad took the court against Assumption on Feb. 3, 1940, it was the final “beginning” of what would become one of the finest college basketball programs in the East.

THE 1921 SERIES WITH BOSTON COLLEGE

After 11 years without basketball, it was Holy Cross’ long-time rival, Boston College, who played a major factor in reviving the program. Holy Cross had no plans to play basketball during the 1920-1921 season, but late in the year Boston College issued a challenge — a home and home series between the rival schools. The Crusaders accepted. Holy Cross’ captain in its “final” season of 1909, William J. Casey, took the helm as coach, and the Crusaders beat the Eagles twice for the only undefeated season in school history. Thus the Crusaders “began” again.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Feb. 8, 1902: Holy Cross loses to Dartmouth 78-27, the college’s greatest margin of defeat ever (51 points).

March 5, 1921: Following a discontinuation of the program for 11 years, Holy Cross defeats Boston College, 28-26.

March 11, 1922: One year after reviving the program, coach Bill Casey’s squad finishes the season with a 14-3 overall record and the New England Championship.

1939-1948:

BUILDING A NATIONAL CHAMPION

The Crusaders of the early 1940s did not exactly set the basketball world on fire. Under the direction of “Moose” Krause, the Crusaders were 11-14 from 1940-1942. “Hop” Riopel returned as head coach in 1942-1943, and his teams were 11-22 in three seasons. But to begin the 1945-1946 season, Alvin “Doggie” Julian became Holy Cross’ seventh coach, and the Crusaders began the most successful run in school history.

Julian’s first squad won 12 games, the most in any season since 1921-1922. The next year, led by Holy Cross greats Dermott O’Connell, Frank Oftring, George Kaftan, captain Joe Mullaney, and a freshman point guard named Bob Cousy, the Crusaders were an incredible 27-3, earning the school’s first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. All Holy Cross did was beat Navy, the City College of New York and Oklahoma in three games to claim the national championship (see page 79 for details). Julian stayed for just one more season (posting a 26-4 mark in 1947-1948) before leaving to take the head coaching position with the Boston Celtics, but clearly he had started the Crusaders on their way.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Jan. 3, 1947: Holy Cross loses its third straight game, falling to Wyoming 58-57. The loss left the Crusaders with a 4-3 record. They would then win their next 23 games in a row en route to the national championship.

Feb. 25, 1947: Holy Cross’ 90-48 rout of Boston College at the Boston Arena broke the school record for points in a game, as well as the Arena record.

March 25, 1947: George Kaftan earns Most Outstanding Player honors in the NCAA Tournament, and also becomes Holy Cross’ first All-American. Two years later, he follows “Doggie” Julian to the Boston Celtics to become the school’s first NBA player.

Dec. 13, 1947: The Crusaders break the 100-point barrier for the first time, defeating Eastern Connecticut State 104-43.

Dec. 17, 1947: Holy Cross’ 26-game win streak is snapped at Columbia (60-53) in the fourth game of the season.

Feb. 14, 1948: Holy Cross defeats Becker 66-37, in its first official game at the Worcester Auditorium. The Crusaders had played Assumption at the Auditorium two weeks prior to this contest, in an exhibition benefiting the March of Dimes.

March 18, 1948: A new winning streak reaches 20 games with a 63-45 defeat of Michigan in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. Bob Cousy scores 23 points.

March 20, 1948: The Crusaders are beaten by eventual NCAA champion Kentucky (60-52) in the national semifinals. George Kaftan is named an All-American for the second time.

1949-1955:

BUILDING A SECOND NATIONAL CHAMPION

After Julian departed at the end of the 1947-1948 season, Lester “Buster” Sheary took the top Crusader post, and the team continued to excel. Sheary coached the team for seven seasons, winning an incredible 81.1 percent of his games (155-36). The most games a Sheary-led team lost was nine, and his teams won no fewer than 19 games in any season.

Sheary, like Julian before him, was blessed with some of the best players in school history. While in his first few seasons he had the chance to coach Cousy, O’Connell, Kaftan and Oftring, Sheary’s teams would later be led by the next set of Crusader greats — including Togo Palazzi, Ron Perry, Earle Markey and Tom Heinsohn. The culmination of Sheary’s teams came in 1953-1954, when the squad captained by Perry and Palazzi compiled a 26-2 record en route to Holy Cross’ second national championship — this time winning the NIT with consecutive victories against St. Francis (N.Y.), Western Kentucky and Duquesne (see page 79 for details).

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

THE 47-GAME HOME WINNING STREAK

A large part of the Sheary legacy is tied up in “the streak.” When Holy Cross defeated Boston College 46-39 on Feb. 5, 1949, it began an incredible stretch of 47-consecutive home victories (spanning six seasons) for the Crusaders. Holy Cross was rarely challenged during the early years of the streak, but ran into considerable trouble during the 1951-1952 season. After a three-point win against Rhode Island early in the season, the Crusaders were taken to overtime by both Columbia and Boston College. In the final home game of the season, Holy Cross nipped Fordham 62-58. The game that stopped the streak, a 78-77 loss to Connecticut on Feb. 27, 1954, proved costly, as it sent the Huskies to the NCAA Tournament and Holy Cross to the NIT. In many ways it was a blessing, as the Crusaders did not lose again, capping the season with an NIT title win against Duquesne.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Jan. 12, 1950: The Crusaders defeat St. Louis 69-55 at the Boston Garden to improve to 13-0 on the season and take over the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press poll. Holy Cross would remain ranked No. 1 for five weeks.

March 3, 1950: Holy Cross defeats the New York Athletic Club 58-56 to improve to 26-0 on the season, before falling to Columbia (61-54) the next day.

March 23, 1950: The Crusaders lose to North Carolina State (87-74) in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Bob Cousy is named the nation’s outstanding player by the Basketball Writers of America. Holy Cross leads the nation in scoring margin at 17.2 points per game, and finishes fourth in the Associated Press poll.

Jan. 15, 1952: Holy Cross tops Providence 106-77, just three days after beating Brown 100-31. It is the first time in school history that the Crusaders scored 100 points in consecutive games.

March 11, 1952: Holy Cross earns its first National Invitation Tournament berth, defeating Seattle (77-72) and bowing to Duquesne (78-68). Holy Cross finishes the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press poll, and 15th in the United Press International poll.

Dec. 31, 1952: Togo Palazzi puts on a fantastic performance at the Dixie Classic, scoring 73 points and grabbing 78 rebounds over three games. Palazzi had 31 rebounds vs. North Carolina and 28 against North Carolina State.

March 14, 1953: The Crusaders defeat Navy and Wake Forest in the NCAA Tournament before falling to Louisiana State (81-73) in the East Regional final. Earle Markey and Togo Palazzi are named Catholic All-Americans. Holy Cross finishes 13th in the Associated Press poll, and 17th in the United Press International poll.

Dec. 30, 1953: Holy Cross wins the Sugar Bowl Tournament, defeating DePaul (79-55) and Bob Pettit-led Louisiana State (66-56).

March 13, 1954: After defeating St. Francis (N.Y.) and Western Kentucky, the Crusaders top Duquesne 71-62 to claim the NIT championship. Holy Cross, which averaged 83.2 points per game, finishes third in the final Associated Press poll, while being ranked ninth by United Press International. Togo Palazzi is the MVP of the NIT, an All-America selection, and the No. 1 pick of the Boston Celtics.

1956-1972:

EASTERN DOMINANCE

When “Buster” Sheary left Holy Cross at the conclusion of the 1955 season, the Crusaders continued to be a major force in the East, as well as nationally. Sheary’s successor was Roy Leenig, a standout high school coach at St. Peter’s Prep. Leenig’s team got off to a fast start as captain Tom Heinsohn led the 1956 Crusaders to a 22-5 mark before Holy Cross lost to Temple in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Leenig’s teams won 106 games during his six seasons, and made three post-season appearances, including a third-place finish in the NIT in 1961.

One of the greatest Crusaders of this era was the top scorer in school history at the time, Jack “The Shot” Foley. Foley’s 2,185 career points now leave him third on Holy Cross’ all-time scoring list, but his 27.7 career scoring average is the best in school history. In each of his three seasons, Foley finished near the top of the national scoring leaders, including his senior year in which his 33.0 points per game average was third best in the nation. In fact, six of the 12 best scoring games by a Crusader came from “The Shot” — including two games in excess of 50 points.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

March 1, 1956: Tom Heinsohn scores 51 points and grabs a New England-record 42 rebounds in a 111-75 victory over Boston College.

March 12, 1956: Holy Cross loses to Temple (74-72) in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Tom Heinsohn, who averaged 27.4 points and 21.0 rebounds, is a consensus first team All-America selection.

March 5, 1960: Jack “The Shot” Foley pours in 55 points against Colgate, a total surpassed in Holy Cross history only by his own effort two years later.

THE TOP-RANKED HOLY CROSS CRUSADERS

The Crusaders were a consistent national force for a decade from 1952-1961. During those 10 seasons, Holy Cross finished the season ranked in the final Associated Press top 20 poll five times, including a number three ranking after winning the NIT in 1954. From Jan. 17-Feb. 20, 1950, Holy Cross achieved the ultimate ranking — number one in the nation. The Crusaders spent five consecutive weeks as the top-ranked team in the nation, while beginning the season with 26 straight victories.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

March 25, 1961: Holy Cross finishes the year with a 22-5 record, placing third in the NIT. The Crusaders beat Detroit (86-62), Memphis State (81-69) and Dayton (85-76), while falling to Providence 90-83 in overtime.

Dec. 6, 1961: Frank Oftring wins his coaching debut, as Holy Cross tops Rhode Island 85-57. Oftring compiled a 64-33 record in four years.

Feb. 17, 1962: Jack "The Shot" Foley scores 39 points in a half and 56 points for the game against Connecticut, both New England records.

March 20, 1962: Foley scores 69 points in two NIT games and is named an All-American. He finishes his career with a then-New England record 2,185 points and a 27.7 points per game average. In his senior season, Foley scores 866 points for a 33.3 average — both New England records.

Jan. 29, 1964: Holy Cross beats Boston University 97-95 in four overtimes at the Worcester Auditorium.

Dec. 4, 1965: Jack Donohue makes his Holy Cross coaching debut, after guiding Power Memorial Academy to a 163-30 record, including 71 straight wins with Lew Alcindor. Holy Cross finishes 10-13, its first losing season in 21 years.

Jan. 26, 1968: Student and mentor are reunited, as Jack Donohue's Crusaders are defeated by No. 2-ranked UCLA, led by former Donohue player Lew Alcindor, at Madison Square Garden 90-67.

Dec. 3, 1970: Holy Cross defeats St. Michael's 138-68 for the school's largest margin of victory (70 points).

1973-1981:

OF SUPERSTARS, STABILITY & STRUCTURES

For all of their success, the Crusaders did have difficulty keeping a head coach during their first half century of basketball. Holy Cross had 11 different coaches in its first 53 seasons, with no coach lasting for more than seven years. All of that ended with the start of the 1972-1973 campaign, when Holy Cross athletic director Ron Perry brought former Holy Cross great George Blaney back to lead the Crusaders. The Blaney era did not get off to a quick start. But over a seven year span from 1975-1981, the Crusaders averaged more than 20 wins per season, and went to the postseason six times — including a 1977 meeting with Michigan in the NCAA Tournament, which was Holy Cross' first trip since a Tom Heinsohn-led team faced Temple in 1956.

During this decade the Crusaders also added a new home. Named in honor of the Reverend Francis J. Hart, S.J. — the guiding force behind intramurals at Holy Cross for more than 40 years — the Hart Recreation Center was officially opened with a 94-85 win over Loyola (Md.) on Dec. 1, 1975. The Crusaders liked their new home, winning 38 of the first 42 at the Hart Center.

Great teams and great coaches, however, need great players, and Blaney's teams during this stretch certainly had their share. The Crusaders were cranking out 1,000-point scorers on a regular basis, with six of them (Chris Potter, Michael Vicens, Garry Witts, Bill Doran, Kevin Greaney and Marty Halsey) playing during this seven-year stretch. In addition to the 1,000-point scorers, these were the years of the school's only 2,500-point scorer — Ronnie Perry. The son of former Holy Cross athletic director Ron Perry, the younger Perry kicked off his career in 1976-1977 by earning National Freshman of the Year honors, and ended his career as Holy Cross' all-time leading scorer.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Dec. 2, 1972: George Blaney coaches his first game with the Crusaders, falling to Dartmouth 76-72.

March 1, 1975: Holy Cross defeats Army 89-73 in its final game at the Worcester Auditorium. The Crusaders compiled a 229-64 (.781) record in the building.

Dec. 29, 1975: The Crusaders knock off sixth-ranked Cincinnati (66-65) at the Rainbow Classic.

March 15, 1976: Holy Cross beats St. Peter's (84-77) and falls to North Carolina State (78-68) in the NIT. Blaney is named New England Coach of the Year.

Dec. 12, 1976: One day after beating UMass (92-85 in overtime), the Crusaders beat Providence (67-65) on a shot at the buzzer by Chris Potter to win the Colonial Classic at the Boston Garden.

March 5, 1977: Holy Cross defeats eighth-ranked Providence (68-67) on a buzzer beater by Potter to capture the ECAC championship and earn its first NCAA Tournament berth in 21 years.

ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH GEORGE BLANEY

The 1993-1994 season marked the final chapter in George Blaney's five decade association with Holy Cross. As a player in the late 1950s and early 1960s, Blaney scored 1,012 points, and was a co-captain for the 1960-1961 season. After a 10-year absence, Blaney returned to Mount St. James to take over the Crusader program for the 1972-1973 season, and spent the next 22 seasons at Holy Cross, during which he compiled a 357-276 (.560) mark. Blaney earned numerous coaching honors with the Crusaders, including Eastern Coach of the Year (1976-1977) and Eastern Basketball's Man of the Year (1993-1994).

March 13, 1977: The Crusaders battle No. 1-ranked Michigan to the wire in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, falling 92-81 before a national television audience. Holy Cross, playing without an injured Ronnie Perry, led 72-70 with less than five minutes remaining in the game.

Feb. 14, 1978: Holy Cross tops the century mark for the seventh time on the season in a 114-76 win over Boston University, and went on to finish the year by averaging a school record 87.96 points per game in a 20-7 campaign.

Dec. 9, 1978: Ronnie Perry hits 15 of 15 free throws in an 85-79 overtime win against Yale.

Jan. 26, 1979: Perry scores a career-high 46 points in a 109-102 overtime loss to Connecticut in the Colonial Classic. The 46 points were a Boston Garden collegiate record.

March 7, 1980: After winning the ECAC championship, Holy Cross falls to Iona (84-78) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Ronnie Perry finishes his career with 2,524 points — 31st best in NCAA history when he graduated.

Feb. 28, 1981: George Blaney becomes the college's winningest coach with a 67-58 victory over Providence.

March 12, 1981: Holy Cross defeats Southern Mississippi (56-54), before falling to Syracuse (77-57) in the NIT.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

1982-1989:

THE END OF INDEPENDENCE

The remainder of the 1980s contained some hard times for Blaney and the Crusaders, as they tried adjusting to a new twist — a conference affiliation. Holy Cross joined the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference to start the 1983-1984 season, and the Crusaders posted losing records (69-102 combined) in six of their seven seasons in the MAAC.

Even during the down times, the Crusaders had a number of fine individual performances. Transfer Jim McCaffrey was a scoring machine in his two seasons, recording 1,178 points in just 53 games. The Crusaders also had a pair of national leaders, as Glenn “Scooter” Tropf led the nation in three-point percentage in 1988, while teammate Glenn “Silk” Williams led the nation in assists per game the following season. Tropf’s incredible .634 (52 for 84) mark from behind the arc remains the NCAA’s best single-season performance to date.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Dec. 29, 1982: Holy Cross plays its first games at the Worcester Centrum, beating Davidson (65-62), and the following day defeating Iona (66-65) for the Worcester County Classic title.

Jan. 6, 1984: Notre Dame makes its first visit to Worcester, beating Holy Cross 73-61 before 10,234 at the Centrum. The Crusaders’ Ernie Floyd hits all 10 of his field goal attempts and finishes with 23 points.

Jan. 28, 1984: Blaney earns his 200th Holy Cross victory with a 69-58 win over Army.

Feb. 27, 1984: Ernie Floyd finishes the season with a .621 field goal percentage, hitting 177 of 285 attempts to set a school single-season record.

Jan. 31, 1985: Jim McCaffrey pours in 46 points (18 of 25 field goals, 10 of 13 free throws) and adds 15 assists in a 102-85 romp over once-beaten Iona to earn Sports Illustrated Player of the Week honors. McCaffrey’s 46 points are a Hart Center and MAAC record.

March 1, 1986: Jim McCaffrey sizzles against La Salle (39 points) and Iona (35 points) to lead the Crusaders into the MAAC Tournament championship game. Tourney MVP McCaffrey scores 25 against Fairfield, but the Stags win the game, 67-64. McCaffrey’s 99 points remain the second-highest total in MAAC Tournament history.

Nov. 30, 1987: Glenn “Scooter” Tropf’s three-pointer with seven seconds remaining lifts Holy Cross to a 99-98 victory over Providence in the season-opener.

Dec. 7, 1987: Blaney records his 300th career victory, 87-77 over Assumption.

Feb. 12, 1988: Glenn Williams dishes out a school-record 17 assists at Army.

March 5, 1988: Glenn Tropf ends the season having hit 63.4 percent of his three-point field goal attempts (52 of 82), for a mark which remains an NCAA single-season record.

Dec. 17, 1988: Glenn Tropf’s 28 points lead Holy Cross to an 85-80 victory over Boston College, lifting the Crusaders to 6-0 for the first time in 11 years.

Feb. 21, 1989: Holy Cross and Iona tie the NCAA record by combining for 38 overtime points in Iona’s 123-113 victory. The 236 total points tie the Holy Cross record and set a MAAC record. Dwight Pernell scores 41 points, including a three-pointer at the buzzer to force overtime.

March 1, 1989: Glenn Williams finishes the season with a school-record 278 assists, while leading the nation with an average of 9.9 assists per game.

1990-1999:

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE

After struggling for a stretch in the 1980s, George Blaney brought the Crusaders back into the postseason to start the 1990s. In what would be Holy Cross’ final season in the MAAC, the Crusaders compiled a 24-6 record and won their first-ever MAAC title. The 24 wins were the most in the Blaney era, and the most for the school since the NIT champions of 1954. In recognition of their season, the Crusaders earned an NIT meeting with Rutgers, which Holy Cross lost, 87-78.

The 1990-1991 season marked the beginning of a new conference affiliation for the Crusaders, as they joined the newly formed Patriot League. Holy Cross won 18 games that season, losing to Fordham in overtime in the conference’s inaugural championship game. After another 18 win season the following year, Blaney took his team to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since Ronnie Perry’s senior year (1979-1980), as his Crusaders compiled a 23-7 mark that included a 98-73 win at Bucknell in the Patriot League championship game.

Blaney left Holy Cross at the conclusion of the 1993-1994 season, replaced by Crusader assistant coach Bill Raynor. Raynor had not only coached under Blaney at Holy Cross, but had been coached by him for two seasons at Dartmouth. Blaney did not leave his former assistant empty handed, as Raynor had Holy Cross’ second all-time leading scorer, Rob Feaster, in the fold for his debut season. The 1998-1999 season brought a return to scholarships, and on April 1, 1999, Ralph Willard — who served as the Crusaders’ basketball captain in 1966-1967 — returned to take the head coaching reigns.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Feb. 10, 1990: Aaron Jordan’s length of the court drive and basket with six seconds left caps a 95-94 comeback victory over Fordham before a sellout crowd at the Hart Center. Holy Cross trailed 92-85 with just 1:59 remaining, but Dwight Pernell scored five of his team-high 28 points in the last two minutes.

Feb. 17, 1990: Behind the 22 points of Dwight Pernell and 21 points of Jim Nairus, Holy Cross knocks off Army (86-68) to clinch the MAAC North title, Holy Cross’ first conference championship.

March 16, 1990: In the college’s first post-season tournament appearance in nine years, the Crusaders battle host Rutgers to the wire, falling 87-78 in the first round of the NIT. Holy Cross’ 24-6 record is its best in 36 years.

Dec. 15, 1990: Holy Cross battles back from eight- and seven-point deficits in the second half to edge Boston College, 76-69 in overtime.

Feb. 23, 1991: George Blaney earns his 300th victory at Holy Cross, a 73-68 win at Colgate.

March 2, 1991: Jean Prioleau’s three-pointer at the buzzer gives Fordham an 84-81 overtime win over Holy Cross in the inaugural championship game of the Patriot League Tournament at the Hart Center.

Dec. 30, 1991: Roger Breslin hits a shot from 68’9” at the end of the first half in a 76-72 loss to Vanderbilt in the championship game of the Music City Invitational. Breslin’s heave is the longest made in Memorial Gym history.

Feb. 29, 1992: Bill Walker’s 26 points lead six Crusaders in double figures in a 116-92 thumping of Lehigh. Holy Cross’ 116 points remain a Patriot League record.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Dec. 1, 1992: The Crusader squad opens the season with a 92-72 win over Harvard. Upping its overall record to 1,000-606, Holy Cross becomes the 79th Division I school to earn 1,000 wins.

Feb. 8, 1993: Crusader mentor George Blaney registers his 400th career victory as Holy Cross defeats Rutgers 99-89. Blaney becomes just the 30th active Division I coach to reach that milestone.

March 10, 1993: Holy Cross wins its first Patriot League championship title with a 98-73 thrashing of Bucknell. Rob Feaster earns Tournament MVP honors after amassing 66 points and nine steals in three games.

March 18, 1993: Holy Cross takes the floor at the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 13 years, falling to 12th-ranked Arkansas 94-64.

Feb. 19, 1994: Rob Feaster scores a Hart Center record-tying 46 points against Navy. It was the first 40-point effort for a Crusader since 1989.

March 5, 1994: Rob Feaster scores a then-Patriot League Tournament record 43 points in a semifinal loss to Navy. He scored 30 or more points 13 times on the year, and his 28.0 point average is second best in Holy Cross history.

Dec. 28, 1995: Rob Feaster's buzzer-beater gives Holy Cross a 75-74 win at Rice. Feaster scored 41 points in the game, one of four times he would accomplish the feat in his career.

March 3, 1996: Holy Cross defeats Army 68-65 in the Patriot League semifinals, earning a spot in the championship game against Colgate. Three days later, Holy Cross falls 74-65 to the Red Raiders.

2000-PRESENT:

THE NEXT MILLENNIUM

After winning just 22 games over the final three seasons in the 1990s, the Crusaders made a coaching change and brought back 1967 graduate Ralph Willard to try and re-energize the program. After posting a 10-18 record in Willard's first season, the Crusaders captured their first ever outright Patriot League regular season title in 2000-2001, then won the league tournament to advance to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1992-1993. Holy Cross followed that season by claiming Patriot League Tournament titles and returning to the NCAA Tournament in 2001-2002 and 2002-2003, becoming the first school in league history to claim three straight titles. Holy Cross also made an NIT appearance in 2004-2005, then advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in the decade in 2006-2007. Now in their first season under head coach Bill Carmody, the Crusaders will look to rise once again.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Nov. 20, 1999: The Crusaders open the Ralph Willard era with a 54-43 win at Providence. The victory is Holy Cross' first over a Big East team since the 1990-1991 season, when the Crusaders also defeated Providence.

Jan. 30, 2000: Josh Sankes sets a Hart Center record with 19 rebounds in a 52-42 win over Army.

Feb. 5, 2000: Sankes set Holy Cross records for blocked shots in a game and in a season, with seven blocks in a 57-54 loss to Colgate. He finished the year with 69 blocks.

Feb. 14, 2001: Holy Cross goes on the road to defeat Navy 77-67 and clinch the program's first ever outright Patriot League regular season championship.

March 3, 2001: Ralph Willard earns Patriot League Coach of the Year honors, while Tim Szatko is named the Patriot League Player of the Year.

March 9, 2001: The Crusaders defeat Navy 68-64 in overtime to win the Patriot League Tournament title. Josh Sankes earns tournament MVP honors.

March 15, 2001: Holy Cross and second-seeded Kentucky are tied with 6:29 left in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, before the Wildcats earn a 72-68 victory.

March 8, 2002: Holy Cross posts a 58-54 victory at American in the Patriot League championship game to capture its second straight NCAA Tournament berth. Tim Szatko is named tournament MVP.

March 14, 2002: The Crusaders battle top-seeded Kansas down to the wire in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Holy Cross leads by five with 14 minutes remaining, but the Jayhawks rally to capture a 70-59 win.

March 14, 2003: Holy Cross wins its 12th straight game and becomes the first Patriot League school to capture three straight conference titles with a 72-64 win over American. Patrick Whearty earns tournament MVP honors.

March 20, 2003: Holy Cross suffers a tough 72-68 loss to Marquette in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Jan. 25, 2004: Jave Meade records the 532nd assist of his collegiate career, becoming the Patriot League's all-time assist leader. Meade finishes his career with 599 assists.

Feb. 13, 2005: Nate Lufkin has three blocked shots in a 73-53 victory over Lehigh, to become Holy Cross all-time leader in career blocks. He finishes his career with 153 blocked shots.

March 1, 2005: Kevin Hamilton earns Patriot League Player of the Year honors, while Pat Doherty is named Rookie of the Year and Ralph Willard is selected as the Coach of the Year.

March 6, 2005: The Crusaders defeat Lehigh 57-53 in overtime in the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament for their 16th straight victory. The winning streak is the longest by Holy Cross since 1950.

March 15, 2005: Holy Cross posts a 78-73 victory at Notre Dame in the first round of the NIT, before falling at St. Joseph's (68-60) six days later in the second round. The win marked the first-ever postseason victory by a team from the Patriot League.

Jan. 11, 2006: The Crusaders set a school single-game record by making 15 three-point field goals in an 84-46 victory at Army.

Jan. 25, 2006: Kevin Hamilton records the 247th steal of his collegiate career, becoming the Patriot League's all-time leader in steals. Hamilton went on to finish his career with 292 total steals. He also set a Holy Cross career record with 222 three-point field goals made.

Feb. 28, 2007: Keith Simmons earns Patriot League Player of the Year honors, while Torey Thomas is named Defensive Player of the Year and Ralph Willard is selected as the Coach of the Year.

March 9, 2007: The Crusaders defeat Bucknell 74-66 at the Hart Center in the Patriot League championship game. Keith Simmons earns tournament MVP honors.

March 16, 2007: Holy Cross falls to Southern Illinois 61-51 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Columbus, Ohio.

Nov. 28, 2007: Tim Clifford blocks six shots against Yale, including the 154th of his collegiate career, to become Holy Cross' all-time leader. He goes on to finish his career with 210 blocked shots.

March 4, 2009: R.J. Evans set a Holy Cross freshman Patriot League Tournament record by scoring 31 points in a 75-56 quarterfinal victory over Bucknell.

Nov. 13, 2013: Holy Cross defeats Sacred Heart 122-118 in double overtime, to set school and Hart Center records for most combined points in a single game (240).

March 17, 2014: The Crusaders post a 68-65 victory at Brown in the first round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

March 5, 2015: Malcolm Miller scored 34 points, but Holy Cross fell 90-83 in overtime at Bucknell in the Patriot League quarterfinals.

1947 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Holy Cross 55, Navy 47 • March 20, 1947

Holy Cross fought off an eight-point Navy lead in the second quarter, edging ahead in the next stanza for good. Coach “Doggie” Julian kept the Crusader quintet fresh by frequently substituting. Joe Mullaney led Holy Cross with 18 points, while George Kaftan added 15 points. The game was the college’s first ever in the postseason.

Holy Cross 60, CCNY 45 • March 22, 1947

City College of New York raced to a 23-14 lead, but Kaftan led a 13-2 Crusader barrage for a 27-25 Holy Cross advantage at halftime. Kaftan had scored 19 points by half, en route to a game total of 30, second best in NCAA Tournament history at the time. Holy Cross scored eight points in the final minute to widen the margin of what was a tight game.

Holy Cross 58, Oklahoma 47 • March 25, 1947
Madison Square Garden • New York, N.Y.

Oklahoma held a 31-28 halftime lead, but a 9-2 run to begin the second half launched Holy Cross to the national championship. Frank Oftring and Bob McMullan triggered the second half run and Dermott O’Connell had his best effort with 16 points. Kaftan tallied 18 and Oftring added 14 as the Crusaders became the first Eastern team to capture the NCAA crown. A sellout crowd of 18,445 was in attendance. An All-Tournament Team was not selected, but George Kaftan was named the Tournament’s Outstanding Player, leading all scorers with 63 points in the three games for a 21.0 points per game average.

1954 NIT CHAMPIONS

Holy Cross 93, St. Francis (N.Y.) 69 • March 9, 1954
Madison Square Garden • New York, N.Y.

Holy Cross rolled to a 39-26 halftime lead and never looked back to defeat the Terriers. The Crusaders connected on 35 of 41 free throw attempts and were led by the 25 points of Togo Palazzi. Other double figure scorers for Holy Cross included Ron Perry (14), Joe Liebler (13) and Tom Heinsohn (12).

Holy Cross 75, Western Kentucky 69 • March 11, 1954
Madison Square Garden • New York, N.Y.

Palazzi continued his spectacular play, scoring 32 points in a semifinal upset of Western Kentucky before 17,525 fans. The much-bigger Hilltopper squad took an 11-point lead in the second quarter, but a 14-1 run by the Crusaders resulted in just a 41-39 Western Kentucky lead at halftime. A Liebler basket with 5:30 to play gave Holy Cross the lead for good at 60-59, and the Crusaders’ ball control offense sealed the victory. Liebler tallied 15 points, while Heinsohn added 13 points.

Holy Cross 71, Duquesne 62 • March 13, 1954
Madison Square Garden • New York, N.Y.

The Crusaders zoomed to a 19-8 advantage in the first quarter and never relinquished the lead in becoming the first New England team to capture the NIT title. Holy Cross led 34-29 at halftime, then Heinsohn scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter to keep the Crusaders in command. Heinsohn and Palazzi shared scoring honors with 20 each, while Liebler had 10 and Perry added seven. Holy Cross finished third in the final Associated Press poll (picking up 11 first place votes) and ninth in the United Press International tabulation. A sellout crowd of 18,496 saw Holy Cross become just the third team nationally to capture both the NCAA and NIT championships. Following the game, Togo Palazzi was named the Tournament MVP. Newspaper stories also indicate that an All-Tournament team was selected, with Palazzi and Heinsohn being honored.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES / COACHING RECORDS

J. FRED POWERS

1901-1906, 1907-1909 • 7 Seasons • 54-33

Powers became the college's first basketball coach after stops at Vanderbilt and Worcester Academy. Powers graduated from Notre Dame, where he was track captain and voted the school's "best all-around athlete." He was a player-coach in 1898-1899 at Notre Dame, with the Irish going 2-0 in their second official basketball season. Powers left Holy Cross for his alma mater and then began a 15-year coaching stint at Brown. He left the Bruin program in 1938 to become director of the Works Progress Administration's recreational activities in Worcester.

WILLIAM J. CASEY

1920-1924 • 4 Seasons • 28-25

Casey captained Holy Cross in 1908-1909 as a junior. The sport was discontinued for the next decade, but when it returned in 1920-1921, Casey was the coach. His first team was 2-0, the lone Holy Cross team ever to go unbeaten. Casey later was principal at Worcester's Commerce High and was inducted into the Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1961, three years before his death.

KEN SIMENDINGER

1924-1925 • 1 Season • 10-5

A 1924 Holy Cross graduate, Simendinger came to Mount St. James as a transfer from Lehigh. He played three years of football and baseball, cracking two home runs and a double in his diamond debut against Dartmouth, earning him the nickname as the "Babe Ruth of the Eastern Intercollegiates." Simendinger is the only Crusader coach to have served for just one season, as he became football coach at Gonzaga High in Washington D.C., where his 1926 squad was unbeaten and unscored upon. He was inducted into the Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1958.

JOHN M. REED

Born in Middletown, Conn., Reed came to Mount St. James in 1900 as a student in the old preparatory school. He was one of Holy Cross' most colorful players and was an excellent kicker, booting 40- and 45-yard field goals against Yale in 1903. The following year against Dartmouth, he drop-kicked a field goal from the 47-yard line. After graduation in 1905, Reed played professional football and coached at Niagara, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Clarkson, before returning to Holy Cross. He was a member of the college's coaching staff when he died in 1934.

ALBERT D. RIOPEL

"Hop" Riopel will forever be known as "Mr. Holy Cross" for his years of dedicated service to the college. He was a three-sport standout at Commerce High and continued to excel at Holy Cross, becoming the only athlete in the college's history to earn 11 letters. The baseball team won 100 games during his four years, while the football team posted a 25-10-1 mark. His game-saving catch helped snap Boston College's 23-game winning streak in 1923. After graduating in 1924, Riopel turned down professional baseball offers to accept a teacher/coaching position at Milford High. He served as basketball coach at Assumption College from 1928-1932 and returned to his alma mater in 1933 as freshman baseball, basketball and football coach. Riopel was later named athletic director at the college and was inducted in the Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1957. Riopel retired as athletic director on June 30, 1966, and died less than three months later.

EDWARD KRAUSE

An All-American in football and basketball at Notre Dame, "Moose" Krause was a dominant center at 6-3 for the Irish, leading them to a 54-12 mark. After graduating cum laude with a degree in journalism in 1934, he coached at St. Mary's (Minn.) College. Krause then moved to Holy Cross, serving as a Crusader football coach from 1939-1941, in addition to his basketball duties. He left the college for his alma mater in 1942 and posted a 98-48 mark during six years as basketball coach. Krause was appointed assistant athletic director in 1948, and a year later he was named athletic director, a title he would hold until his retirement in 1980. He is a former Walter Camp Hall of Fame Man of the Year recipient and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1976. Krause passed away on Dec. 11, 1992.

ALVIN JULIAN

The man who was primarily responsible for the rise in popularity of basketball in New England became the college's seventh coach after achieving great success at Muhlenberg College. "Doggie" Julian played football at Bucknell and after graduating in 1923, played professional baseball until an injury forced him to the sidelines. He coached in his hometown of Reading, Pa., and at Albright College before starting a nine-year stint at Muhlenberg. His teams were 129-69 and earned two National Invitation Tournament berths, with the 1944-1945 squad going 24-4. Holy Cross reached the pinnacle in Julian's second year, defeating Oklahoma at Madison Square Garden for the 1947 NCAA Championship. The team won a record 27 games that year and went 26-4 in 1947-1948, giving Julian a 65-10 mark in three seasons. He then took the reins of the Boston Celtics from 1948-1950 and concluded his career at Dartmouth, compiling a 386-342 mark from 1950-1967. A former president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, Julian was inducted into the Helms Foundation College Coaches Hall of Fame (1963), the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (1967) and the Varsity Club Hall of Fame (1986). He passed away on July 28, 1967.

LESTER SHEARY

This Worcester native compiled an outstanding .811 winning percentage in his seven years. "Buster" Sheary gained All-South fullback honors at Catholic University, where he also played basketball. He returned to Worcester and coached in the high school ranks for 10 years, leading St. Peter's to the 1936 New England Championship. Sheary became associated with the college during World War II, serving as a specialist in the Naval ROTC. His coaching career started with scouting duties for the football and basketball squads, and he was unanimously elected coach by the 1947-1948 basketball team. In 1953-1954, he led the Crusaders to a 26-2 mark and the NIT Championship. A year later Sheary left the college, but retained his duties as assistant director of athletics for the Worcester Public Schools. He passed away on Nov. 30, 2001.

ROY LEENIG

1955-1961 • 6 Seasons • 106-48

A native of Guttenberg, N.J., Leenig found great success as a player and coach in the schoolboy ranks prior to arriving at Holy Cross. He played for a West New York, N.J., squad which was unbeaten and won two state titles. Leenig played professionally with the Union City Reds, the Cap Smith Celtics and Baltimore, but an injury forced him into coaching ranks. He coached at Holy Family High in Union City, N.J., for two years, but made his mark at St. Peter's Prep (N.J.) from 1949-1955, as his teams won 24 city, county, state and tournament championships, while posting a 166-22 record. St. Peter's won five straight state titles and Leenig was named New Jersey Coach of the Year five times. The team also won two Eastern States crowns and Leenig was voted the outstanding coach in the Newport, R.I., event on three occasions. Leenig led the 1960-1961 Crusaders to a 22-5 mark and a third-place NIT finish. He is one of five Holy Cross mentors to win more than 100 games and his .688 winning percentage is third-best. Leenig left the college in 1961 to pursue business interests, and passed away in 1982.

FRANK OFTRING

1961-1965 • 4 Seasons • 64-33

After two seasons as freshman and assistant coach, Oftring was named Leenig's successor in 1961. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Oftring played at Brooklyn Tech High and then began a 3 1/2-year stint in the Navy. He had an opportunity to play service basketball and it was while stationed at Quonset (R.I.) Naval Station that Oftring caught the eye of then Crusader coach Alvin Julian, who brought him to Mount St. James. A defensive wizard and an aggressive rebounder, Oftring and classmate Bob Cousy were the keys to Holy Cross' march to the NCAA crown as freshmen in 1947. The Crusaders were 99-19 during their four years and Oftring gained additional distinction as a four-year Dean's List student in business administration, graduating cum laude. The president of the Class of 1950 also was awarded the John C. Lawlor Gold Medal, given to the outstanding student-athlete in the graduating class. In the early 1950s Oftring and Cousy went into business together, with Oftring also coaching at St. Peter's High for six years. He joined the Holy Cross staff in 1959 and posted four straight winning seasons as head coach before resigning to spend his time as president of a local investment firm. He was inducted into the Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1978, four years before his death.

JACK DONOHUE

Several Crusader coaches have had an opportunity to coach against global competition, but none more so than Donohue, the college's 11th coach. A 1952 graduate of Fordham, Donohue began his coaching career in 1954 at St. Nicholas Tolentine High in the Bronx, going 87-16 in four years. He and a dominating youngster named Lew Alcindor then grabbed the basketball world's attention at Power Memorial Academy, as Alcindor-led squads won 71 straight games and helped Donohue compile a 163-30 mark. Donohue's last six Holy Cross teams posted winning marks and during the 1967-1968 campaign, his Crusaders faced the Alcindor-led UCLA Bruins at Madison Square Garden, with John Wooden's national champions winning 90-67. In 1972, Donohue was named coach of the Canadian National Team, a post he held through 1988. Four years after becoming coach, he took a team which had not qualified for the 1968 Olympics to a fourth-place finish in the Montreal Olympiad. Canada continued to improve under Donohue, placing fifth in the 1981 World University Games, losing only to the Soviet Union. Canada was sixth at the 1982 World Championship and strengthened its spot as a world power the following year by winning the gold medal at the World University Games, defeating the United States and Yugoslavia in the medal round. Donohue guided the Canadians to a fourth-place finish in the 1984 Olympics and announced his retirement following the 1988 Seoul Olympics. He passed away on April 16, 2003, and was later inducted into the International Basketball Federation Hall of Fame in 2013.

GEORGE BLANEY

Blaney was the sixth Holy Cross graduate to return as head basketball coach. He served the college longer than any other mentor and coached the Crusaders in 633 contests — more than double the games coached by any of his 11 predecessors. As a player, Blaney was reunited with his coach at St. Peter's (N.J.) Prep, Roy

Leenig, for three seasons. In Blaney's final two campaigns as a player, the Crusaders won more than 20 games and placed third in the 1961 NIT after compiling a 22-5 record. Blaney scored 1,012 points in his career and was an All-New England selection as a senior. He played professionally with the New York Knicks before returning to New Jersey as coach at Hudson Catholic High. Blaney then took the coaching and athletic director reins at Stonehill College for two seasons, compiling a 27-18 mark and winning a league championship. Dartmouth College beckoned his services in 1969 and Blaney was 37-40 with the Big Green before replacing Donohue in 1972. Some of the finest players and teams in the storied history of Crusader basketball were part of the Blaney era. Holy Cross posted nine consecutive winning seasons starting in 1974-1975, with five of the squads winning 20 games or better. Blaney was named Eastern Coach of the Year in 1976-1977, as the Crusaders went 23-6 and played in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 21 years. The Purple made return trips to the NCAAs in 1980 and 1993, and played in five NITs as well under Blaney. In the summer of 1994, he returned to his native New Jersey to take the head coaching reigns at Seton Hall. Blaney retired from coaching in 2013.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES / COACHING RECORDS

E. WILLIAM RAYNOR, JR.

1994-1999 • 5 Seasons • 54-83

On August 3, 1994, Raynor was named the 13th coach in Crusader history, replacing George Blaney. Raynor's ties to then-athletic director Ron Perry and Blaney were strong. Raynor was a standout guard for Perry's Catholic Memorial High teams, as they compiled an 80-3 mark during Raynor's years as the point guard. Raynor went on to excel at Dartmouth, where he remains one of the school's all-time leading scorers. During two of his seasons with the Big Green he was coached by Blaney. Prior to taking the head coaching reigns at Holy Cross, Raynor served six seasons as an assistant to Blaney. During his five years at Holy Cross, Raynor led the team to two winning seasons, including a trip to the Patriot League championship game in 1996.

RALPH WILLARD

1999-2009 • 10 Seasons • 192-117

Willard was the 14th head coach of the Crusader men's basketball team, and was the seventh Holy Cross graduate to hold the position. A 1967 graduate of the college, Willard was a three-year letterwinner and served as the 1966-1967 team captain. In his senior season the Crusaders posted a 16-9 mark. This was Willard's third collegiate head coaching position. He previously served as the head coach of Western Kentucky from 1991-1994 where he posted an 81-42 mark in four seasons, leading the Hilltoppers to three postseason tournaments. Willard left Western Kentucky to take the head coaching reigns at Pittsburgh in 1995. He led the Panthers to a 63-82 mark and one NIT berth in five years. In his 10 seasons as the head coach at Holy Cross, Willard guided the team to an overall record of 193-117, with the Crusaders winning four Patriot League championships, while advancing to the NCAA Tournament four times and the NIT once. He was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year three times. Willard currently serves as an assistant coach at Louisville.

SEAN KEARNEY

2009-2010 • 1 Season • 9-22

Kearney served as the Crusaders' head coach for just one season, posting an overall record of 9-22 and a 5-9 mark in the Patriot League. His team did earn a 67-64 upset victory at Bucknell in the quarterfinals of the Patriot League Tournament, and his nine victories came by an average margin of 13.8 points. Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Kearney was an assistant coach at Notre Dame for nine seasons, and at Delaware for nine years. He currently serves as the director of player development at Colorado.

MILAN BROWN

Brown spent five years as the Crusaders' head coach, leading the team to a pair of winning seasons. During the 2013-2014 campaign, Holy Cross went 20-14 overall and defeated Brown in the first round of the College Insider Tournament. Brown also guided the team to a 58-57 victory over No. 25 Harvard on Nov. 16, 2014, good for the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 1977. Prior to his time with the Crusaders, Brown served as the head coach at Mount St. Mary's for seven years, posting an overall record of 95-120 and making one NCAA Tournament appearance. He currently serves as an assistant coach at the College of Charleston.

Beginning with the 1948-1949 season, the number in front of the opponent name indicates Holy Cross' ranking in the Associated Press poll coming into the game. The number following the opponent name indicates its ranking. During the early years of the Associated Press poll, the rankings did not begin until several weeks into the season.
