The Holy Cross Athletic Media Relations Department welcomes any media member that has interest in covering the teams. We will strive to make a professional working environment and answer any questions that may arise. Here are some guidelines and policies for covering Holy Cross athletic teams.

NICKNAME

All Holy Cross athletic teams share the nickname "Crusaders." You can also use College of the Holy Cross, The College, Holy Cross or HC when needed. Specifically for women's basketball, "Lady Crusaders," "Saders" or "Lady 'Saders" should not be used as a reference at any time.

ARENA

The Holy Cross women's basketball team plays its games in the Hart Recreation Center. In addition, Hart Center is also an acceptable use of the stadium name.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests for working media or scouting credentials should be made to Jim Sarkisian, Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations (508-793-2780; jsarkisi@holycross.edu) at least 24 hours in advance of the contest. The media pass will be left at the will call table 90 minutes before the opening tipoff.

Every effort will be made to accommodate all members of the working media. Work space on press row is limited and passes are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Spouses, children and guests are not permitted in the press row area.

RADIO BROADCASTS

The radio rights for all Holy Cross women's basketball games are owned by Crusader Sport Properties, a division of Outfront Media Sports. Priority and space for radio broadcasts are given to the flagship carriers.

Additionally, Holy Cross has installed phone and Ethernet lines available for use by visiting radio on press row. Any request for use of these lines should be made to Jim Sarkisian, Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations (508-793-2780; jsarkisi@holycross.edu) at least 48 hours prior to the contest. Others wishing to install their own lines may contact Verizon Telephone at (508) 792-4000.

In-game or post-game press services with regards to statistics and interviews should be coordinated with Jim Sarkisian.

TELEPHONES

There is one community telephone on press row for use by the working media. Media members interested in using this phone should coordinate with Jim Sarkisian, Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations. To order a private phone, contact Verizon Telephone at (508) 792-4000.

INTERNET ACCESS

There is high speed wireless Internet access available for member of the working media to use in the Hart Center arena. The available wireless network is titled "HCGuest." To complete the connection, log onto your Internet browser and fill in the appropriate information.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Programs, pregame press notes, media guides and flip cards will be available in the media room one hour prior to tipoff. Complete box scores and play-by-play sheets will be distributed to the media at halftime and after the game has ended. Complete "stat" books will be available approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the game.

During the game, the Holy Cross athletics website (GoHolyCross.com) will feature unofficial live statistics for working media to use if they desire.

Before the contest, a light meal and drinks will be provided to the working media approximately one hour before tipoff.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking at the Hart Center is free and is available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Members of the media are encouraged to arrive at least one hour before tipoff in order to ensure the availability of parking. Broadcast media may temporarily stop in front of the Hart Center to load/unload equipment, but then must park in the designated lot.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Holy Cross head coach Bill Gibbons and players along with the visiting head coach and players, will be available following a brief cooling off period.

Press conferences will be held in the Bud Ryan Room room located on the second floor of the Hart Center. Media members should submit interview requests to Jim Sarkisian by the five minute mark of the fourth quarter.

If requested, the visiting team will speak at the press conference first, followed by Holy Cross.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Holy Cross head coach Bill Gibbons and players can be arranged through Jim Sarkisian. Please provide 24 hours notice for interview requests and be aware that the student-athlete's academic responsibilities take precedent. Interviews may be done in person following practice.

Since practice times vary, contact Sarkisian for an updated practice schedule. On game days, no interviews will be granted prior to competition.

It has been eight years since the Holy Cross women's basketball program has cut down the nets, but head coach Bill Gibbons – who is set to embark on his 31st season at the helm – is as optimistic as ever.

And he should be...

Prior to the 2014-2015 season, the Crusaders had made it all the way to the Patriot League Championship Game three straight seasons only to suffer setbacks in each game. Last year, Holy Cross was in a prime spot to make it a fourth straight season, but the third-seeded Crusaders were upset in the quarterfinal round by No. 6 Lehigh.

After posting a 4-5 mark during the first half of last year's Patriot League schedule, the Crusaders found their way and won seven of their final nine games – including their final four regular season contests – to earn the No. 3 seed in the Patriot League Tournament.

Holy Cross looks to build off last year's end-of-season success, as it returns 10 letterwinners and four starters to the lineup, including first team All-Patriot League selection Raquel Scott and third team All-Patriot League honoree Lisa Mifsud.

This returning group of players has Gibbons excited for the upcoming campaign.

"This team has been through it all," said head coach Bill Gibbons. "They have been through the rigors of the season and they know what Patriot League playoff basketball is about. The biggest strength of our team this season is the experience and knowledge of what it will take to win a Patriot League Championship."

Holy Cross, who owns the most Patriot League championship in league history with 11, has its sights set for one thing this year – number 12. The Crusaders will look to their four seniors and more specifically their two captains, Scott and Kate Gillespie for leadership and guidance throughout the season.

"This group of seniors has been to a pair of Patriot League Championships," said Gibbons, "only to watch the other team cut down the net. They are hungry and want more than ever to cut down the net in March and go to the NCAA Tournament."

BACKCOURT

The Crusaders' strength this season will lie in their backcourt, as they return all six guards from last year's squad. Led by seniors Lisa Mifsud and Kate Gillespie, the Holy Cross guards have the versatility to not only shoot from long range, but to also to run a fast-paced offense.

Mifsud had her role increased during her junior season and she answered the call with 12.4 points and 3.8 assists per game, which ranked eighth and second in the Patriot League, respectively. She also canned a team-high 55 three-pointers last year and drilled a team-best 72.9 percent of her free-throws.

Gillespie played in all 32 games for Holy Cross last year and averaged 6.6 points per game, while shooting 35.9 percent from long range (46-128). She tallied eight double-digit scoring games in 2014-2015 including a career-high 23 points against Manhattan.

"Both Lisa and Kate have a lot of experience and that will be beneficial for us this season," said Gibbons. "We expect Lisa to continue her progression in the point-guard role, but we may also see her play some two-guard as needed."

"Kate has the ability to open up the floor with her long-range shot and that will also help us as the season goes on. It's nice to have two veterans coming back in the backcourt."

The Crusaders also return 32-game starter and Patriot League All-Rookie team selection Katie Doherty to the lineup this season, as the sophomore averaged 6.5 points, 3.2 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game in 2014-2015.

"Katie was a steady player for us last year," said Gibbons, "and we are looking to have her do even more this season. I think you always need that steady and solid piece to the backcourt and she is definitely that for us."

Holy Cross also brings back three other sophomore guards in Tricia Byrne, Shannon Druck and Infiniti Thomas-Waheed, who all add depth to the backcourt. Thomas-Waheed had a solid rookie campaign, as she averaged 5.5 points and 3.2 rebounds per game, while Byrne played in all 32 games and averaged 2.0 points and 1.0 steals per contest.

"The game-playing experience these three had last year will be invaluable to them this year," said Gibbons. "We are very deep at the guard spot and will look to use everyone in some capacity this season."

FRONTCOURT

The Holy Cross frontcourt will be led by one of the top forwards in the Patriot League in Raquel Scott. Scott is coming off a first-team All-Patriot League campaign in which she averaged 16.7 points and 9.8 rebounds per game, while recording 13 double-doubles. She enters the 2015-2016 season as the 21st all-time leading scorer in Holy Cross history (1,125 points) and ranks sixth all-time in career rebounds with 756.

Scott, who was named to the preseason All-Patriot League team in 2015-2016, will lead the Crusaders both on and off the court this season with her dominant play and her vocal competitiveness.

"Raquel is a natural leader," said Gibbons. "It helps when you hardest working player is also one of your leaders and that's how it is with Raquel. She is one of the most talented athletes I've coached and she has a chance to not only be the Patriot League Player of the Year, but also one of the best players in the history of the league."

In addition to Scott in the frontcourt, the Crusaders will look to 6-4 center Molly Hourigan to have a solid campaign. Hourigan, who led the Patriot League with 2.3 blocks per game in 2014-2015, also averaged 4.6 points and 5.3 boards per contest last year. With the graduation of Emily Parker, Hourigan will be called upon more this year to log additional minutes at the five spot and provide an offensive presence down low.

"Molly has always had Emily to be the 1-2 punch, but now she's the punch," said Gibbons. "She has worked hard this past off-season and is embracing this role now as the starting center. We expect her to grow into this role and have a great senior season."

Holy Cross will look to sophomore Amy Hasenauer to spell Hourigan at the five spot, as the 6-2 forward played in 22 games during her rookie season. Hasenauer averaged 1.4 rebounds and 0.5 blocks per game in 2014-2015. Junior Madelyn Ganser will primarily provide depth to the Crusader frontcourt, but can also play the three-guard if called upon.

In addition, the Crusaders welcome a pair of freshmen to the squad in 6-2 forward Maggie Locke and 6-4 center Miranda Nixon.

"I'm looking for contributions from both freshmen this season," said Gibbons. "Miranda will play the five-spot on the floor for us, while Maggie can play either the four or five. I am pleased with the way they both have progressed this preseason."

SCHEDULE

Holy Cross will play a 29-game schedule with 14 games in the friendly confines of the Hart Center. The Crusaders' schedule includes four schools that advanced to post-season play last season and eight contests against teams that had winning records in 2014-2015.

"We are excited about another challenging schedule this year," said Gibbons. "The non-conference slate featuring two ACC teams, a Big 10 team and the defending MAAC champions should really prepare our team for the Patriot League season."

Holy Cross' non-conference slate will include five home games against UMass, Bryant, Vermont, Manhattan and Dartmouth. The Crusaders will face a tough non-conference road schedule this season, with contests at Penn State, Boston College, Yale and UMass Lowell, as well as 2015 NCAA Tournament participants Quinnipiac and Pittsburgh.

In Patriot League play, Holy Cross will have home-and-home series against each of the nine other teams in the conference. The league schedule will be highlighted by contests against 2015 Patriot League Tournament and regular season champion American and preseason Patriot League favorite Army West Point.

"The Patriot League, which I continue to believe, is the most underrated conference in college women's basketball," said Gibbons. "We have quality teams in our league, who continue to prove that they can compete with the country's best."

The 2015-2016 Patriot League Tournament will feature a different format than in past seasons. The first round and quarterfinal matchups will take place on the campus of the higher seeded team. The highest remaining seed will then host the semifinal and championship games of the tournament.

"I really like the new format of the league tournament system with the semifinals and championship game being played on consecutive days at the same site," said Gibbons. "It gives the playoffs a nice 'Tournament-Feel' playing back-to-back days and one of our goals will be to host the final two games at the Hart Center."

NEW GAME FORMAT

The upcoming season will feature a plethora of changes to the women's basketball game. Some big modifications include moving the game to four quarters rather than two halves, eliminating the one-and-one free throw chances, and being able to advance the ball up the court in the second and fourth quarter will less than a minute on the clock.

"It will be a different game to coach in for sure," said Gibbons. "I think it will be a little bit of trial-and-error early on, but I am anxious to see how the fans like it. We are going to have to talk about certain situations as a coaching staff so we are prepared for whatever may come up on game day."

BILL GIBBONS

Clark, 1981

31st Season

Overall: 568-344 (.623)

Patriot League: 247-97 (.718)

Bill Gibbons is in his 31st season at the helm of the Holy Cross women's basketball program in 2015-2016, and his 35th season as part of the Holy Cross athletic department. He is the winningest coach in the history of the program, leading the Crusaders to an overall mark of 568-344 in his first 30 years. On Dec. 3, 2011, Gibbons earned his 500th victory as Holy Cross' head coach, becoming the 24th active Division I coach to reach 500 wins. He crossed the 550-win plateau on Feb. 19, 2014.

Gibbons was the recipient of the prestigious Paul N. Johnson Award, given to a member of the Worcester community who has greatly contributed to Worcester area basketball. With his service, the name Gibbons has become a fixture in the realm of women's basketball. He has led the Crusaders to 11 Patriot League Championships in his career as head coach. He has also made 13 postseason appearances (11 NCAA Tournaments, one WNIT and one WBI) in his 30 years. With seventeen 20-win seasons under his belt, Gibbons has cemented himself and the women's basketball program as one of the best in the East.

The sixth coach of the women's program at Holy Cross, Gibbons has enjoyed the longest tenure in the position. He has led the Holy Cross women's basketball program to more victories than any other coach, and is the winningest coach in Holy Cross basketball history. With his 358th victory, he surpassed George Blaney (357 wins as head coach of the Holy Cross men's basketball program), who had hired him to be his assistant coach in 1981. Now with more than 550 wins under his belt, Gibbons is the second-winningest coach in Holy Cross Athletics history, behind legendary baseball coach Jack Barry, who totaled 616 wins from 1921-1960.

In 2007, Gibbons was named the assistant women's basketball coach for Team USA, competing in the Pan American Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. During the five-day basketball tournament made up of eight international basketball teams, Gibbons' team took home the gold medal, winning the championship game on July 24 over Brazil in front of 15,000 fans.

In 2006, Gibbons was named as a Russell Athletic / WBCA Victory Club Award recipient. The Russell Athletic / WBCA Victory Club Award is presented to each WBCA member head coach who achieves career wins of 200, 300, 400 and 500. Gibbons made his way onto the prestigious list with a 70-53 win over Army on January 12, 2005. Entering the 2013-2014 season, Gibbons ranks in the top-25 on the list of winningest active Division I coaches.

In 2003, he was inducted into the New England College Basketball Hall of Fame at the University of Rhode Island. The six-time Patriot League Coach of the Year has maintained the winning tradition which he inherited 30 years ago. The undaunted leader has produced teams that have tangled competitively with some of the nation's best. In recent years, Gibbons' squads have been tested by Arizona, Auburn, Connecticut, Duke, DePaul, Florida, Iowa, Louisiana Tech, Maryland, Michigan, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Notre Dame Penn State, Rutgers, Stanford, Vanderbilt, Tulane, Virginia and Wisconsin. He has included top 25 teams in the Crusaders' competitive schedule each year and has subsequently built the program's reputation nationally. Attracting outstanding student-athletes throughout the country, Gibbons and his staff have vastly improved the college's recruiting efforts during his tenure.

As the women's collegiate game has changed throughout the country in recent years, so has women's hoops on Mount St. James. Now one of the premiere teams on campus, the Crusader women's basketball team has drawn record crowds at the Hart Center, including the 4,000 fans who attended the contest against the Connecticut Huskies in January 2000, the first sellout at the Hart Center for women's basketball.

SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM

While some aspects of the game have changed, others have remained the same at Holy Cross. An integral part of Gibbons' collegiate coaching philosophy is the success of each student-athlete in the classroom. Impressively, each student-athlete who has played for four seasons under Gibbons' direction has earned her degree. The Crusader program has produced four Academic All-District players and more than 10 Academic All-District picks.

During Gibbons' tenure, three players have earned Patriot League Female Scholar Athlete of the Year honors (Kathy Courtney, Ann Lambiotte and Amy O'Brien), and five players have earned Patriot League women's basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors (Lisa Andrews, Courtney, Brittany Keil, Lambiotte and O'Brien (2x)). In addition, Gibbons has coached 10 CoSIDA Academic All-District players, three of whom were also named Academic All-Americans. Recently, Whitney Freneau (2011), Amy Lepley (2012) and Alex Smith (2013 & 2014) and Raquel Scott (2015) have been named to the Patriot League All-Academic team.

SEVENTEEN 20-WIN SEASONS

Gibbons has led the Crusaders to more victories than any other coach in Holy Cross history during his 30-year tenure. He has won 20 or more games in 11 of the last 21 seasons and in 17 seasons overall. For his career, Gibbons has averaged 18.9 wins per year. In his rookie campaign, Gibbons led his squad to an impressive 21-7 overall record and a third place finish in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The 1986-1987 Crusaders finished with a 19-10 overall mark and placed second in the MAAC. In 1987-1988, Holy Cross upped its ledger to 21-8 and took second place conference honors.

Gibbons' level of success reached new heights with a MAAC Tournament title and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1988-1989. In addition, the Crusaders finished the season 21-10 overall and 10-2 in the MAAC.

SUCCESS IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

The 1990-1991 campaign was a monumental season for Gibbons. Voted Patriot League Coach of the Year by his peers, he led the Crusaders to a 12-0 conference record and to the regular season and post-season league championships. Under his care and guidance, Holy Cross finished 25-6, setting a school record for victories. In addition, the squad earned an at-large invitation to the NCAA Tournament, upsetting Maryland, 81-74, at the Hart Center for the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory.

Gibbons directed the 1992-1993 Crusaders to a 22-7 overall mark and a Patriot League regular season title. His 1994-1995 and 1995-1996 squads also captured Patriot League championships, giving Holy Cross three titles in a span of four years. Gibbons earned his 200th career win on March 5, 1995, when the Crusaders upended Bucknell, 62-39 in the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament.

In 1996-1997, Gibbons guided his squad to a 23-4 mark, matching the best winning percentage in school history. With a 12-0 mark in Patriot League play, Holy Cross became just the second team in league history to compile a perfect regular season record. For his efforts, Gibbons was honored as Patriot League Coach of the Year for the second time.

The 2002-2003 team compiled a 13-1 mark in Patriot League play (24-8 overall), earning its seventh-consecutive Patriot League regular season title. Gibbons was again named as the Patriot League Coach of the Year.

After a disappointing 13-15 mark in 2003-2004, the first sub-.500 season under Gibbons' direction, the Crusaders came back to win 20 games in 2004-2005, while capturing both the Patriot League regular season (12-2) and tournament titles, and earning the program's 11th trip to the NCAA Tournament.

The 2005-2006 team (16-14 overall) compiled a 10-4 record in Patriot League play and won six of its last seven games going into the Patriot League championship game, but fell to Army, 69-68 in the title contest, denying the program it's 10th postseason appearance in 12 years.

The 2006-2007 team (15-18 overall) finished third in the Patriot League but won the Patriot League Tournament title after defeating No. 4 seed American 56-48 in the final. The Crusaders lost to Duke in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

During the 2007-2008 season (19-13 overall) the Crusaders finished the season ranked second in the league with a 10-4 record and runner-up in the tournament, after hosting Bucknell in the Championship game.

More recently, Gibbons teams have posted winning records in four of the last eight seasons, while making four more appearances in the Patriot League chamionship game (2008, 2012, 2013 and 2014). The 2012 team also advanced to the Women's Basketball Invitational, defeating New Hampshire 63-59 in the first round for only the second postseason win in the program's history.

In Patriot League games, Gibbons owns a 247-97 (.718) record, including 11 regular season titles and 11 tournament crowns. His teams have competed in postseason play in 13 of the last 27 years, including four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1998 to 2001. Holy Cross has also advanced to the Patriot League championship game 18 times in the last 25 seasons.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

An active supporter of community involvement, Gibbons and the Crusader program take great pride in being able to do something positive for the Worcester community. The team has adopted three organizations as their unofficial charity partners. The Crusaders visit the Mercy Centre three to four times a year and spend time with mentally and physically challenged children and teach them basketball skills. Holy Cross also works with the Why Me/Sherry's House organization, which helps children and families of kids with cancer. The squad is involved with Team IMPACT as well, which is a non-profit group that matches children facing life-threatening illnesses with collegiate sports programs.

The Crusaders also volunteer at the Mustard Seed, where they help contribute food to homeless shelters throughout the Worcester area. Another popular community activity is the Reading Day program, where the team visits area schools to read and convey the importance of academics to elementary students. Lastly, the Crusaders raise money and take part in

HEAD COACH

UMass Medical's annual "Walk to Cure Cancer."

In 2005, Gibbons and his Crusaders were chosen from all Division I, II & III teams in New England and awarded the Final Four Award for Community Service. In 2006, Gibbons was presented with the Emerald Club of Worcester Shillelagh Award. He also received the 2006 Greendale Flag Football League Service Award for his 10 years of outstanding service to the league.

In addition, Gibbons has served as a member of the CNN/USA Today Coaches Poll, NCAA Women's Basketball East Regional Advisory Committee, Kodak All-America Selection Committee, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, Worcester Area Basketball Coaches Association and the Young Men's Business Association of Worcester. He is also a religious education volunteer at St. Joan of Arc Church and a volunteer coach for Worcester Youth Soccer, College Hill Youth Basketball and Tris Speaker Little League.

BASKETBALL IN THE BLOOD

Coaching successful basketball teams is synonymous with the Gibbons family. His father, Bill Gibbons, Sr., retired as the boys' basketball coach at Doherty High School in Worcester with 373 career wins. He was also inducted into the Massachusetts Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame and the New England Basketball Hall of Fame. While a senior on his father's Doherty squad, Bill received All-City honors. Bill Jr. also served as an assistant to his father while a junior in college. That same year, he was named "Coach of the Year" in the Worcester Parks and Recreation League. Bill's brother, Tom, also a Clark graduate, is the successful head boys' basketball coach at Wachusett Regional High School in nearby Holden, Mass. And finally, his son Billy enters his seventh season as an assistant coach for the WPI men's basketball team.

Gibbons is a respected member of the community and has appeared as a resident coach and lecturer at many local basketball camps. During the summer, he serves as the director of the Holy Cross Girls' Basketball Camp, one of the country's largest and most successful girls' summer camps, attracting more than 500 girls, ages 9-17. He has also served as a commissioner of the Holy Cross Boys' Basketball Camp. In addition, he has been a featured speaker the past five years at the Massachusetts Basketball Coaches Association's Basketball Clinic held at Holy Cross.

Gibbons is also the President of the Worcester Area Coaches Association (WACBA), which is an organization of the 20 men's and women's basketball programs from the 10 central Massachusetts colleges. This year, he began a fall hoops clinic for area coaches to benefit Why Me and Sherry's House.

A Worcester native, Gibbons graduated from Clark University in 1981. He then went on to earn a master's degree in business administration from Clark while serving as an assistant coach for the Holy Cross men's basketball team.

Gibbons and his wife, Lisa, make their home in Worcester. They have two sons, William Robert (26) and Robert Charles (23).
